

CONTENTS

Chapter 1	Research in Policy Analysis: The Intelligence and Appraisal Functions	1
	Harold D. Lasswell, Policy Sciences Center
	Working Definitions	1
	Intelligence Functions and Structures	2
	Appraisal Functions and Structures	4
	The Five Intellectual Tasks	4
	The Scientific Task	4
	The Goals of Intelligence and Appraisal	10
	Trends, Projections, Alternatives	14
	Distinctive Trends in Research and Analysis	15
Chapter 2	Making Economic Policy: The Role of the Economist	23
	Joseph A. Pechman, The Brookings Institution
	The Objectives	26
	The Mechanisms	36
	The Instruments	44
	Performance	50
	Procedural Improvements	72
Chapter 3	Science Policy	79
	Harvey M. Sapolsky, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
	American Science Policy in Historical Perspective	82
	Organizational Critics and Enthusiasts	86
	Scientists as Advisors	90
	The Scientific Approach to Policymaking	95
	Science Policy in Comparative Perspective	97
	Conclusions	100

Chapter 4	Welfare Policy	111
	Charles E. Gilbert, Swarthmore College
	Introduction	111
	Public Welfare since the Social Security Act	115
	Characteristics of the "Old Welfare"	157
	The War on Poverty and the "New Welfare"	167
	Poverty and Welfare Policy	182
	Government and Welfare	203
	Epilogue: Dilemmas of Welfare Policy	216
Chapter 5	Race Policy	241
	Duane Lockard, Princeton University
	The Concept of Race Policy	241
	The pervasiveness of race policy	241
	The meaning of race	242
	The meaning of policy	245
	The roots of race policy	249
	Types of Race Policy	258
	Exterminating subject races	258
	Racial enslavement	261
	Domination	266
	Liberating policies	285
Chapter 6	Comparative Urban Policy and Performance	305
	Robert C. Fried, University of California, Los Angeles
	The Shift to Urban Performance	305
	The Range of Urban Policy	310
	Explaining the Range and Diversity of Policy	316
	Weighing the Determinants of Policy	332
	The Range of Policy Outcomes: Comparative Performance	346
	The Political Implications of Policy Studies	358
Chapter 7	Foreign Policy	381
	Bernard C. Cohen, University of Wisconsin
	Scott A. Harris, University of Wisconsin
	An Overview	382
	Conceptual Development	385
	An Organizing Framework	388
	Actors	391
	Contexts and Issues	397
	Governmental Institutions	401
	Domestic Sources	410
	External Sources	418
	Conversion and Output Variables	420

Chapter 8	The Analysis of Policy Impact	439
	John G. Grumm, Wesleyan University
	Scope and Conceptualization	441
	Research Methodology	448
	The Relation of Policy-Impact Research to Political Science	458
	Setting the Agenda	460
	Data Requirements	462
	Organization of Policy-Impact Research	463
	Conclusions	465
	Index	475