

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Preface	xi
I. Garcilaso and the Rhetoric of Sincerity	1
1 Garcilaso's Critics and the Question of Sincerity	3
2 Text and Message in the Love Lyric	29
3 Garcilaso and Renaissance Modes of Imitation	55
II. The Vernacular Renaissance	73
4 Pietro Bembo and Sixteenth-Century Petrarchism	77
5 Bernardo Tasso and the Beginnings of Anti-Petrarchism	103
III. Garcilaso's Petrarchan Sonnets	135
6 Apprenticeship in the Italian Mode	143
7 The Petrarchan Sonnets	161
8 Unorthodox Petrarchan Postures	179
IV. Anti-Petrarchan Postures in the Sonnets	197
9 Love Sonnets in a New Mode	201
10 Neoplatonic Themes in the Love Sonnets	233
11 The Dedicatory Sonnets	261
V. Code and Paradox	279
12 Mars and Venus Shamed: The Paradox of Love and Civilization	281

13 Mars Dominant: Jealousy and the Difficulty of Moderation	317
VI. Mars in the House of Venus: The Ode ad florem Gnidi	337
14 Garcilaso's Ode and the Classical Tradition	339
15 The Ode ad florem Gnidi as Iconological Mystery	365
Conclusion	393
Works Consulted	397
Index	419