

CONTENTS

Introduction to the Series	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Illustrations	xiii
The Documents and their Sources	xiv
Preface	xix
Introduction.....	1
Section I: Theoretical Beginnings and Early Practice (1899-1922)	19
Introduction.....	19
Spoken Action (Document No. 1)	20
Illustrators, Actors and Translators (Document No. 2)	23
Dialect Theatre (Document Nos. 3-6)	34
Virgilio Talli and Right You are! (If You Think So) (Document No. 7)	44
Theatre and Literature (Document No. 8).....	47
Section II: International Dramatist: Six Characters in Search of an Author and Henry IV (1921-1925)	55
Introduction.....	55
Six Characters in Search of an Author (Documents Nos. 9-16)....	56
Henry IV (Documents Nos. 17-23).....	72
Section III: The Teatro d'Arte (1924-1928).....	87
Introduction	87
Letter from Stefano Pirandello to Luigi Pirandello (Document No. 24)	89
Documents proposing the Teatro d'Arte (Documents Nos. 25-6) ..	91
Letter from Pirandello to Mussolini (Document No. 27)	98
Virgilio Marchi's Memories (Document No. 28)	100
The First Night (Document No. 29)	104
Marte Abba (Documents Nos. 30-31	108
The Teatro d'Arte Company in London (Documents Nos. 32-35) ..	112
Letters to and from Claudio Argentieri (Documents Nos. 36-42) ..	118
Problems with Playing Places (Documents Nos. 43-44)	126
Letters from Guido Salvini (Documents Nos. 45-46)	127
Proposal for an Italian National Theatre (Document No. 47)	131
The Repertories of the Teatro d'Arte (Documents Nos. 48-50)...	132
Conclusion	147
Section IV: The Later Years and After (1929-1967)	151
Introduction.....	151
Pirandello on the Talking Film (Document No. 51)	152
Tonight We Improvise (Documents Nos. 52-56)	157
Giorgio Strehler's Production Notes for The Mountain Giants (Document No. 57).....	166
Pirandello's Address to the Volta Conference (Document No. 58).....	172

Conclusion.....	179
Appendices
1. Some Translations into English of Plays by Pirandello	184
2. First Productions of Pirandello's Plays.....	187
References and Select Bibliography	192
Index.....	195