

Contents

List of Documents	vii
List of Plates	xiv
Preface	xv
Acknowledgments	xviii
Abbreviations	xix
1 Social Order and Tensions in Tudor England	1
Great Chain of Being	2
Social Order, Social Change, and the State	9
Foreigners View English Society	16
Historians' Debates	19
Additional Source Collections	21
2 Reviving the Crown, Empowering the State: the Tudor Challenge	22
Edward IV, Richard III, and the Reassertion of Royal Power	24
Claiming the Throne: Richard III, Henry VIII, and the Pretenders	28
Henry VIII and Cardinal Wolsey	37
Tudor Revolutions in England, Wales, and Ireland?	41
Historians' Debates	46
Additional Source Collections	48
3 Religious Reformations	49
The Old Church Remembered, Criticized, and Defended	50
Henry VIII's Great Matter	55
The New Church Established	57
Conservative Reaction	62
Protestant vs. Catholic under Edward VI, Mary I, and Elizabeth I	65
Historians' Debates	74
Additional Source Collections	77
4 Elizabethan Worlds	78
Imperial Ambitions; Geopolitical Realities	78
Between Jesuits and Puritans	90

Elizabethan Performances	96
Historians' Debates	105
Additional Source Collections	108
5 Masterless Men and the Monstrous Regiment of Women	109
Rough Music, Food Riots, and Popular Rebellions	109
Good Wife, Bad Wife, Poor Wife, Witch	119
Poor Laws and the Reform of Popular Culture	127
Historians' Debates	133
Additional Source Collections	136
6 Early Stuart Church and State	137
Divine Right of Kings and Ancient Constitutionalism	137
Puritans and Anti-Puritans	142
The Crisis of Parliaments	148
The Personal Rule	158
The Constitution Reformed or Deformed?	160
Historians' Debates	167
Additional Source Collections	170
7 Civil War and Revolution	171
War and Reaction in the Three British Kingdoms	171
Constitutional Experiments, Regicide, and Reconfiguration	184
Radicals, Sectaries, and Revolving New Notions	193
Historians' Debates	203
Additional Source Collections	206
8 Religion, Restoration, and Revolution	208
Dissenters, Catholics, and the Church of England	208
Whig vs. Tory	219
James II, William of Orange, and the Revolution of 1688–9	229
Historians' Debates	237
Additional Source Collections	240
9 Later Stuart Politics, Thought, and Society	241
Revolution Settlements Debated	241
The Rage of Party	259
Landed Interest versus Monied Interest, and the Reformation of Ideas	266
Historians' Debates	278
Additional Source Collections	280
Bibliography of Online Document Archives	282
Index	285