

CONTENTS

	PREFACE	vii
one	INTRODUCTION	1
	nature of reading development	1
	point of view	9
	plan of this book	11
two	ADJUSTING INSTRUCTION TO INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES	13
	individual differences in the classroom	13
	basic considerations in adjusting to individual differences in reading	18 meeting individual differences in reading	27
	diagnostic teaching in the classroom	29
	summary	32
	study questions	34
	selected readings	34
three	DESCRIPTION OF DISABLED READERS	35
	identifying the disabled reader	36
	categories of reading disabilities	45
	summary	47
	study questions	48
	selected readings	48
four	CAUSES OF READING DISABILITY: PHYSICAL FACTORS	51
	visual deficiencies	52
	auditory deficiencies	55
	speech defects	58
	general health problems	59
	glandular disturbances	60
	neurological limitations	61
	lateral dominance	63
	summary	66
	study questions	67
	selected readings	67

five	CAUSES OF READING DISABILITY: COGNITIVE AND LANGUAGE FACTORS	69 intellectual limitations 69 cognitive factors 70
	language factors 72
	psycholinguistic abilities in reading 75
	summary 76
	study questions 76
	selected readings 77
six	CAUSES OF READING DISABILITY: EMOTIONAL, ENVIRONMENTAL, AND EDUCATION FACTORS	79
	personal and social adjustment 79 environmental causes 83 educational causes 89
	summary 94
	study questions 95
	selected readings 96
seven	BASIC CONSIDERATIONS IN DIAGNOSING READING DIFFICULTIES	97
	general principles of diagnosis 97 analyzing reading difficulties 104 illustration of an analysis of reading difficulties 114
	summary 120
	study questions 121
	selected readings 122
eight	USE OF SPECIFIC ASSESSMENT PROCEDURES	123
	classification of reading difficulties 123 tests used in general diagnosis in reading 125 tests used in specific diagnosis in reading 128 tests used in child-study diagnosis in reading 130 the Gates-McKillop-Horowitz reading diagnostic tests 130 the Spache diagnostic reading scales 135 Stanford diagnostic reading test 137 informal diagnosis 140
	use of standardized reading diagnostic tests in combination with informal procedures 147
	summary 149
	study questions 150
	selected readings 150
nine	PLANNING APPROPRIATE REMEDIATION	151
	remedial plans must be individualized 153
	the remedial plan must encourage the disabled reader 156 materials and exercises must be appropriate 160

	the remedial plan must use effective teaching procedures	163
	the plan must enlist cooperative efforts	167
	summary	169
	study questions	170
	selected readings	170
ten	CORRECTING DEFICIENCIES IN MEANING CLUES TO WORD RECOGNITION	173
	failure to associate meaning with printed symbols	178 insufficient sight vocabulary	180
	failure to use meaning clues	184
	case study of a primary grade student with difficulty relating meaning to printed symbols	189
	summary	193
	study questions	193
	selected readings	194
eleven	CORRECTING FAULTY PERCEPTUAL AND DECODING SKILLS IN WORD RECOGNITION	195
	general suggestions for correcting word-recognition difficulties	196 ineffective visual-perceptual habits	198
	limited knowledge of word elements	206
	lack of fluent oral and visual synthesis	214
	case study of an upper elementary grade student with difficulty in word-recognition	216
	summary	222
	study questions	222
	selected readings	223
twelve	TREATING THE EXTREMELY DISABLED READER	225
	methods of treatment	225
	treating orientational difficulties	232
	summary	240
	study questions	241
	selected readings	241
thirteen	ADAPTING INSTRUCTION TO THE HANDICAPPED CHILD	243
	the visually deficient child	245
	the auditorially limited child	246
	the neurologically impaired child	248
	the emotionally disturbed child	251
	the mentally handicapped child	254
	the speech-defective child	257
	case study of an upper elementary student with a basic word recognition problem and an auditory limitation	258
	summary	262
	study questions	264
	selected readings	264

fourteen	CORRECTING BASIC COMPREHENSION DEFICIENCIES limited meaning vocabulary 269 ineffective use of sentence sense 278 insufficient comprehension of longer units 284 summary 286 study questions 287 selected readings 287	265
fifteen	OVERCOMING SPECIFIC COMPREHENSION LIMITATIONS limitations in specific comprehension abilities 290 insufficient development of basic study skills 295 deficiencies in reading content materials 298 summary 305 study questions 306 selected readings 306	289
sixteen	CORRECTING READING RATES AND ORAL READING DIFFICULTIES correcting inefficient rates of comprehension 307 overcoming ineffective oral reading 320 case study of a high school student with a basic comprehension limitation and poor rate of reading 325 summary 330 study questions 331 selected readings 331	307
seventeen	ENCOURAGING CONTINUED GROWTH IN READING developing a permanent interest in reading 333 establishing independence in using reading 338 continuing progress in reading after remediation 340 study questions 341	333
	REFERENCES	343
	INDEXES author 353 subject 356	353