

Contents

Illustrations	x
Tables	xi
Acknowledgement	xii
Introduction	1
Part 1 The development of communication	13
Stage 1: The children have profound learning difficulties	15
Stage 2: The children begin to take an active interest in their surroundings	17
Stage 3: The children begin to understand words and gestures	19
Stage 4: The children produce their own first words	21
Stage 5: The children use connected speech	23
Part 2 Activities for developing communication	25
Stimulating hearing	27
Stimulating vision	41
Stimulating the sense of touch	49
Stimulating the sense of movement	57
Stimulating the sense of smell	67
Stimulating the sense of taste	75
Watching and finding things	77
Handling objects	87

Behaving purposefully	109
Making things happen	121
Understanding the positioning of objects	131
Recognizing and understanding sounds	141
Imitating actions	155
Imitating vocal sounds	164
Make-believe play	168
Understanding words	176
Producing first words	191
More advanced understanding of language	212
Producing more advanced language	225
Language without speech	238
Beyond two-word sentences	243
Part 3 Problems in the development of communication	245
Children who do not appear to be conscious	247
Children who do not handle or play with objects	248
Children who lose interest in objects after they have been removed from view	249
Children who show few signs of purposeful behaviour	251
Children who do not understand that there are reasons that events occur	253
Children who do not understand the importance of the positioning of objects	255
Children who are unable to imitate the sounds or the actions of other people	257
Children who do not take part in make-believe, imaginative play	259
Children who do not understand language	261
Children who do not produce single words	263
Children who use single words but not connected speech	265

Withdrawn children	267
Children who have difficulty in forming relationships with people	269
Children who are overactive	271
Children who are easily distracted	272
Children who behave impulsively	273
Children who keep repeating a word or action after it has served its purpose for them	274
Echolalia, or 'echoed speech'	275
Cocktail-party speech	277
Part 4 Record-keeping	279
Day-sheet	281
Word-record	283
Frequency-record	286
References	289
Index	292

Illustrations

1	Rocking-board	60
2	Down Box	199
3	Goodbye-Hello Box	199
4	Paget-Gorman sign for 'orange'	239
5	Day-sheet	282
6	Word-record	284
7	Word-record	285
8	Frequency-record	288

Tables

1	Functions of single-word utterances	4
2	The five stages of Early Communicative Skills	5
3	The six sensorimotor actions identified by Piaget	7
4	General teaching aims for the five stages	8
5	Relating the five stages to teaching activities	9
6	Target words for noun/pronoun comprehension	177
7	A basis for increased understanding	212
8	A basis for vocabulary-building	215
9	Early descriptive vocabulary	221