

Contents

| | |
|--|-------|
| Preface | v |
| Acknowledgements | vii |
| Introduction | 1 |
| I From Existence to Ethics | 9 |
| 1 The Phenomenological Theory of Being | 11 |
| 2 There is: Existence without Existents | 29 |
| 3 Time and the Other | 37 |
| 4 Martin Buber and the Theory of Knowledge | 59 |
| 5 Ethics as First Philosophy | 75 |
| 6 Substitution | 88 |
| II Reading, Writing, Revolution, or Aesthetics, Religion, Politics | 127 |
| Aesthetics | |
| 7 Reality and Its Shadow | 129 ✓ |
| 8 The Transcendence of Words | 144 |
| 9 The Servant and her Master | 150 |
| 10 The other in Proust | 160 |
| Religion | |
| 11 God and Philosophy | 166 ✓ |
| 12 Revelation in the Jewish Tradition | 190 |
| 13 The Pact | 211 |
| 14 Prayer Without Demand | 227 |
| Politics | |
| 15 Ideology and Idealism | 235 |
| 16 Difficult Freedom | 249 |
| 17 Zionisms | 267 |

| | |
|------------------------|-----|
| 18 Ethics and Politics | 289 |
| Glossary | 298 |
| Bibliography | 301 |
| Index | 308 |