

CONTENTS

	8	Foreword Nicholas Olsberg
	10	Acknowledgements
	13	Introduction Maria Antonella Pelizzari
	19	Map
	20	From Stone to Paper: Photographs of Architecture and the Traces of History Maria Antonella Pelizzari
Part One PROJECTING INDIA	60	Antiquarianism, Visuality, and the Exotic Monument: William Hodges's A Dissertation Stephen Bann
	86	Rites of Passage: A Frenchman's Albums of British India Julia Ballerini

Part Two CAPTURING INDIA'S PAST	108	The Compulsions of Visual Representation in Colonial India Tapati Guha-Thakurta
	140	“This Noble Triumph of Photography”: Linnaeus Tripe’s Thanjavur Inscription Panorama Janet Dewan
	154	Pattern of Photographic Surveys: Joseph Lawton in Ceylon John Falconer
	174	Photography and Architecture at the Calcutta International Exhibition Peter H. Hoffenberg
Part Three MEMORIALIZING THE RAJ	196	Colonial Amnesia and the Old Regime in the Photographs of Linnaeus Tripe Nicholas B. Dirks
	216	Pictorializing the “Mutiny” of 1857 Narayani Gupta
	240	Monuments and Memorials: Lord Curzon’s Creation of a Past for the Raj Thomas R. Metcalf
Part Four REIMAGINING INDIA	262	Some Indian “Views of India”: The Ethics of Representation Christopher Pinney
	276	The Sacred Circulation of National Images Partha Chatterjee
	293	Notes
	307	Chronology Clare Backhouse
	317	Biographical Notes: Photographers and Artists Working in India
	323	Bibliography Sophie Gordon and Maria Antonella Pelizzari
	336	Contributors
	338	Index