

Contents

Preface ix

- 1 Maps in the Humanities and Social Sciences 1
 - Words and Maps 4
 - Maps, Location, and Spatial Pattern 12
- 2 Scale, Perspective, and Generalization 19
 - Scale Models and the Representation of Scale 22
 - Global Perspective and the Distortion of Size and Shape 31
 - Regional Perspectives and the Conservation of Distance 42
 - Some General Rules 52
- 3 Visual Variables and Cartographic Symbols 55
 - The Visual Variables of Jacques Bertin 58
 - Form and Function in Cartographic Representation 76
 - Accessible Coding and Cartographic Goals 88
- 4 Map Goals, Map Titles, and Creative Labeling 91
 - Communication Goals, Map Content, and Graphic Hierarchies 93
 - Typography as Cartographic Symbol 105
 - Language and Cartographic Communication 116
- 5 Cartographic Sources and Map Compilation 119
 - Searching for Cartographic Information 122
 - Copyright and Permissions 139

- The Mechanics of Compilation 147
In Summary: Seek and Collect 156
- 6 Statistical Maps, Data Scaling, and Data Classification 157
Mapping Count Data 159
Mapping Intensity Data 167
Modifications for Greater Effectiveness 177
The Ethics of One-Map Solutions 185
- 7 Mapping Movement, Change, and Process 187
Mapping Flows 189
Spatial-Temporal Series and Maps of Change 193
Distance Cartograms and Relative Space 198
Fronts and Frontiers: Mapping War and Settlement 200
The Map as a Narrative 203
- 8 Relational Maps and Integrative Cartography 207
Patterns, Trends, and Spatial Models 209
Superposition and Additive Overlays 220
Representing Geographic Correlation 227
Integrating Maps, Graphs, Words, and Pictures 242

Appendixes

- A Drawing Media: Electronic Graphics or Pen-and-Ink Drafting 247
Tools for Compilation 248
Tools for Symbolization 251
Tools for Labeling 253
Software Compatibility and Planning 254
- B Working with a Cartographic Illustrator 257
Working Relationships 257
What the Illustrator Will Need to Know 260
- C Selected Readings 263
Notes 267
Sources of Illustrations 289
Index 293