

Contents

Introduction: Family Productions 1

PART I: FAMILIAL DISCOURSE, PRINT CULTURE, AND THE SOCIAL BODY

1. Constructing a Discourse 23
2. Museum of Social Horrors 63

PART II: LACK OF FAMILY AS FICTIONAL STRATEGY IN FRANCE

3. Paul et Virginie: "Family" and the Politics of the Sentimental Body in Prerevolutionary France 101
4. Inside Out: Domesticating the Social in
Eugène Sue's Les Mystères de Paris 137
5. No Future: Disembodied Domesticity in
Balzac's Les Paysans 186
6. Midwiving Subjectivities and Female Knowledges:
Sand's La Petite Fadette 213
7. Perverse Commerce: Familial Pathology and
National Decline in La Curée 240

8. Straight Is the Gait: Modernism as Celibate Writing in Gide's La Porte étroite 278

Epilogue: A History of the Present 303

Notes 319

Works Cited 335

Index 351