

Contents

Map of the eastern Mediterranean in the early centuries A.D.	ii
FOREWORD by Lloyd P. Gerson	vii
1. THE AIMS OF NEOPLATONISM	1
2. THE SOURCES OF NEOPLATONISM	16
3. PLOTINUS
I. Life and writings	47
II. The three Hypostases	57
III. Emanation, Logos, Sympathy	61
IV. The individual soul	72
V. Return to the One	82
VI. Plotinus and later Neoplatonism	90
4. PORPHYRY AND IAMBlichUS
I. Neoplatonism from Plotinus to the death of Julian	94
II. Anti-Christian polemic and the problem of theurgy	100
III. The three Hypostases in Porphyry and the Parmenides commentator	110
IV. Iamblichus' counter-attack; the soul and her salvation	118
V. The structure of late Neoplatonic metaphysics	123
VI. Textual exegesis according to Porphyry and Iamblichus	134
5. THE ATHENIAN SCHOOL
I. Neoplatonism at Athens and Alexandria	138
II. Some basic doctrines of the Athenian School	146
III. Damascius and the end of the Academy	158

6. THE INFLUENCE OF NEOPLATONISM	160
ABBREVIATIONS	179
CITATIONS OF ANCIENT SOURCES	183
BIBLIOGRAPHY by Lloyd P. Gerson	185
INDEX	197