
CONTENTS

List of Maps	xii
Editors and Contributors	xiii
Classified Contents List	xv
List of Abbreviations	xxvii
Chronology	xxix
Maps	xlviii
Note to the Reader	lii
THE OXFORD COMPANION TO THE BRONTËS A—Z	1–571
Dialect and Obsolete Words	573
Bibliography	583
Picture Acknowledgements	586

LIST OF MAPS

The north of England: places associated with the Brontës.	xlviii
Ireland: places associated with Revd Patrick Brontë and his family (based on William Wright, The Brontës in Ireland , 107).	xlix
Ireland: places visited by Charlotte Brontë and Arthur Nicholls on their honeymoon journey.	l
The Glass Town Federation, and the kingdom of Angria (based on Branwell Brontë's frontispiece to 'The History of the Young Men' (1831), with Angria added). (Christine Alexander.)	li