

Contents

Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	I
1 The Miasmas of Poverty: The Lower Classes in ‘Una Visita al Cuarto Estado’	9
2 The Control of Prostitution	27
Regulating Deviant Femininity: The Role of Philanthropy	28
Filth, Drains and Foul Odours in Fortunata y Jacinta
and Nazarín : The Discourse on Public Hygiene	34
The Panoptic Strategy in the Convent of Las Micaelas	58
Fighting Filth beyond the Walls of Las Micaelas	78
3 The Drink Problem	87
Drink and Social Stability: Discourses of Power in
Fortunata y Jacinta	87
Drink and Degeneration in Angel Guerra	109
4 The New Poor: Changing Attitudes to Poverty, Mendicity and Vagrancy	132
The Deserving and Undeserving Poor in Angel Guerra	132
Nazarín’s Challenge: Begging and Indiscriminate Charity	148
Halma : The Undeserving Poor Reconsidered	169
Misericordia : Old and New Attitudes to Mendicity	176
Conclusion	195
Bibliography	199
Index	213