

CONTENTS

Contributors	6
Preface	7
How to use this book	8
1 Literature and history	9
Richard Allen
2 First encounters: works by Sir William Jones and others	29
Richard Allen
3 The British nation and the colonies: Mansfield Park	43
Richard Allen
4 Literature, nation and revolution: A Tale of Two Cities	55
Richard Allen
5 The White Man's Burden: Kim	67
Lynda Prescott
6 Poetry and nation: W.B. Yeats	78
Stephen Regan
7 Liberal dilemmas in England and India: A Passage to India	95
Richard Allen
8 Gandhian nationalism: Kanthapura	107
Harish Trivedi
9 Fragmenting nations and lives: Sunlight on a Broken Column	121
Vrinda Nabar
10 A post-colonial world: Look Back in Anger and The Enigma of Arrival	138
Richard Allen
11 Post-colonial hybridity: Midnight's Children	154
Harish Trivedi

Related texts

A note on the texts	167
1 Literature and history	168
1.1 The British penetration of India (map)	168
1.2 The Republic of India (map)	169
2 First encounters	170
2.1 Warren Hastings, Preface to Charles Wilkins's translation of The Bhagavad-Gita	170
2.2 Sir William Jones, Preface to Sacontalá	174
2.3 Sir William Jones, On the origin and families of nations	178
2.4 Indian poetry in English	184

2.5	Raja Rammohan Roy, On education in India	191
2.6	Raja Rammohan Roy, On British moves to abolish the practice of female sacrifices	194
2.7	Thomas Babington Macaulay, On education for India	198
3	The British nation and the colonies	206
3.1	Robert Southey, from The Curse of Kehama	206
3.2	Thomas Moore, from Lalla Rookh	216
4	Literature, nation and revolution	225
4.1	Accounts of the events of 1857	225
4.2	G.B. Malleson, from The Indian Mutiny of 1857	229
4.3	J.F. Fanthorne, from Mariam: A Story of the Indian Mutiny of 1857	235
5	The White Man's Burden	240
5.1	Rabindranath Tagore, from Gora	240
5.2	J.R. Seeley, from The Expansion of England	245
6	Poetry and nation	256
6.1	W.B. Yeats, 'Irish Writers Who Are Winning Fame'	256
6.2	W.B. Yeats, 'Ireland and the Arts'	259
6.3	W.B. Yeats, Introduction to Rabindranath Tagore's Gitanjali	263
6.4	Rabindranath Tagore, Two poems from Gitanjali	267
6.5	Rabindranath Tagore, from Nationalism	268
6.6	Vallathol Narayana Menon, Selected poems	278
7	Liberal dilemmas in England and India	286
7.1	Bal Gangadhar Tilak, Home rule for India: radical ideas	286
7.2	Gopal Krishna Gokhale, Home rule for India: moderate ideas	288
7.3	The Indian princes and the future of India	293
7.4	Edward Thompson, from The Reconstruction of India	294
8	Gandhian nationalism	300
8.1	Speeches and writings of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi	300
8.2	Premchand, 'A Special Holi'	310
8.3	Premchand, from Rangabhumii	314
8.4	Speeches and writings of Jawaharlal Nehru	317
9	Fragmenting nations and lives	322
9.1	Lalithambika Antharjanam, 'Childhood Memories'	322
9.2	Lalithambika Antharjanam, 'A Leaf in the Storm'	329
9.3	Bhisham Sahni, 'The Train Has Reached Amritsar'	336
9.4	Ajneya [S.H. Vatsayan], 'Getting Even'	345
9.5	Saadat Hasan Manto, 'Toba Tek Singh'	351

10	A post-colonial world	357
10.1	Christine Weston, 'Be Still, She Sleeps'	357
10.2	Ruskin Bond, 'The Man Who Was Kipling'	360
10.3	Ruskin Bond, 'The Last Time I Saw Delhi'	363
10.4	Tom Stoppard, from Indian Ink	366
11	Post-colonial hybridity	373
11.1	Kamaleshwar, 'The Nose of King George the Fifth'	373
11.2	Sharad Joshi, 'Who Isn't Afraid of Virginia Woolf?'	378
11.3	Alka Saraogi, from Kali-katha: Via Bypass	384
	Acknowledgements	394
	Index	396