

Contents

Introduction: The Past and Present of Militarized Genocide, 3

I. Images of War and the Emergence of Industrial Killing

1. Man and the Mass: Reality and the Heroic Image in War, 15
2. The European Imagination in the Age of Total War, 33

II. The Holocaust: Histories, Memories, Stories

3. Antisemitism, the Holocaust, and Reinterpretations of National Socialism, 53
4. Historians on the Eastern Front: Andreas Hillgruber and Germany's Tragedy, 71
5. An Idiot's Tale: Memories and Histories of the Holocaust, 89
6. Intellectuals on Auschwitz: Memory, History, and Truth, 115

III. The Aesthetics of Murder: Visual Representations of Evil

7. War, Memory, and Repression: Alexander Kluge and the Politics of Representation in Postwar Germany, 139
8. Chambers of Horror: The Reordering of Murders Past, 153

Notes, 187

Index, 237