

Contents

I. THREE CONCEPTS OF EQUALITY	1
II. ULTIMATE AND OPERATIVE: THE CLASSICAL DUALISM	12
III. EQUALITY IN THE REFORMATION	24
Luther: The Spiritual Equality of Christians	25
Calvin: Equal Depravity	38
Müntzer: The Community of the Perfect	48
IV. FROM THEOLOGY TO POLITICS	60
The Levellers: Equality and Liberty	62
Hobbes: Equality and Security	70
Winstanley: Equality and Community	79
V. EQUALITY AND ENLIGHTENMENT	89
Hooker, Locke, and Condorcet: Moral Autonomy and Competitive Equality	92
Rousseau: Equality and Mass Society	105
Mably, Morelly, and Babeuf: Equality and Property	112
VI. THE LIBERAL CRISIS	126
John Stuart Mill: The Modification of Liberal Doc- trine	129
Spencer: The Tactic of Postponement	143
VII. THE CONSERVATIVE PARADOX	156
Tocqueville: The Dangers of Democracy	158
Kierkegaard, Stirner, and Nietzsche: The One and the Many	176
Freud: Equality as Myth	183
VIII. THE SOCIALIST DILEMMA	194
The Young Hegel: Equality as Love	198
The Non-Marxian Socialists	211
The Marxian Critique of Liberal Equality	216
Marxian Socialist Equality	225
IX. EQUALITY AND THE DECLINE OF POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY	234
NOTES	243
INDEX OF NAMES	267