CONTENTS

List of Illustrations .......................................................... vii
List of Tables ................................................................. ix
Series Editors’ Preface ......................................................... xi
New Introduction ............................................................. xiii
Foreword to the First Edition ............................................ xxxix

PART I

II. The System of Color-Castes ............................................. 15
III. The Class System of the White Caste ............................... 59
IV. The White Upper-Class Family ....................................... 84
V. The White Middle-Class Family ...................................... 100
VI. The White Lower-Class Family ...................................... 118
VII. Social Cliques in the White Society ................................. 137
VIII. Social Mobility within the White Caste ........................... 171
IX. Social Cliques in the Colored Society ............................... 208
X. The Class System of the Colored Caste ............................. 228

PART II

XI. General View of the Economic System .............................. 255
XII. Caste, Class, and the Control of Land ............................. 276
XIII. Economic Groups and the Control of Land ....................... 300
XIV. Division of Labor in the Cotton Economy ....................... 324
XV. Financing the Production of Cotton ................................ 343
XVI. Income from Cotton .................................................. 359
XVII. How the Negro Tenant Lives ....................................... 378
XVIII. Intimidation of Labor ............................................... 392
XIX. The Plantation in Its Social Setting .............................. 401
XX. Caste, Class, and the Urban Economy ............................ 422
XXI. Relation between the Caste System and the Economic System .................................................. 454
XXII. Caste, Class, and Local Government: White Power ........... 483
Caste and Class .............................................................. 539

Index ................................................................................. 541
ILLUSTRATIONS

1. Relation between the caste system and the class system in the deep South ........................................ 10
2. The social perspectives of the social classes ................................................................. 65
3. Frequency of interparticipation of a group of women in Old City: 1936—Group I ........................................... 148
4. Frequency of interparticipation of a group or women in Old City: 1936—Group II ........................................... 149
5. Types of members of, and relationships between, two overlapping cliques ............................................................................................................. 150
6. Distribution of 443 white clique members by social class ............................................. 161
7. Interparticipation of Clique Groups I and II in an age-class configuration ................................................. 163
8. The participation line in an age-class configuration ..................................................... 163
9. Scope of possible participations of an upper-middle class woman .................................................. 166
10. Social participation through an indirect relation: “Up and Older” .................................................. 167
11. Social-participation chart for the study of the Negro society ........................................ 209
12. Social stratification of a group of colored cliques: ages 15–60 ........................................ 212
13. Social stratification of a group of colored cliques and associations: ages 20–40 .................................................. 213
14. Rural population of Old County, by number and proportion for each color group: 1840, 1850, 1910, and 1930 .................................................. 256
15. Relative size of white and Negro tenure groups in Old County: 1930 .................................................. 281
16. Percentage of landlords by production groups ................................................................. 306
17. Proportion of farm land owned by production Groups VII, VIII, and IX and by production Group IX, compared with proportion which these groups constitute among all farm operators: 1934 .................................................. 307
18. Average value of farms in Old County by production groups ........................................ 308
19. Average yield per acre by production groups: 1928–32, inclusive .................................................. 314
20. Variation in the yield of cotton per acre, according to soil-topography areas and production groups: 1928–32, inclusive (map) .................................................. 317
21. Variation in the yield of cotton per acre, according to soil-topography areas and production groups: 1928–32, inclusive (graph) ..................................................... 319
22. Circulation of money on a plantation through a manager-patriarch-treasurer ......................................................... 416
23. Average wage per week of mill workers at Old City planing-mill: 1933 ................................................................. 434
24. Average wage per week of mill workers at Old City planing-mill: 1933 ................................................................. 435
25. Relative status of Negroes and whites in noneconomic structures of the society ......................................................... 455
26. Relative status of Negroes and whites in economic structures of the society ......................................................... 455
TABLES

1a. Social characteristics of a sample of 43 white participation groups in Old City: Clique Group I ........................................ 152
1b. Social characteristics of a sample of 43 white participation groups in Old City: Clique Group II ........................................ 154
2. Analysis of the social participation of the female members of 8 white cliques: ages 20–29 .................................................. 157
3. Distribution of 443 individuals in Clique Groups I and II by age group and social class .................................................. 160
4. Age distribution of the upper-middle-class and lower-middle-class members of Clique Groups I and II ........................................ 162
5. Leading fields of employment in Old County, by color and sex of employees: 1929 .................................................. 258
6. Leading fields of employment in Rural County, by color and sex of employees: 1929 .................................................. 259
7. Production groups, 1928–32, inclusive, in A.A.A. sample of 556 farm-operators .................................................. 303
8. Number and percentage of landlords in each production group: 1932 .................................................. 305
9. Distribution of tenants among landlords, by production groups of landlords: 1934 .................................................. 310
10. Number of tenants per farm, by production groups of landlords .................................................. 311
11. Yield per acre by production groups: Group I .................................................. 313
12. Yield per acre by production groups: Groups V, VI, VII, VIII, and IX .................................................. 315
13. Average yield per acre by production groups and soil-areas for 225 cotton-producers .................................................. 318
14. Average value of implements and machinery owned, by tenure groups and color: 1930 .................................................. 322
15. Distribution of owners and cash tenants by production groups, A.A.A. sample .................................................. 361
16. Estimated profit of 30 largest cotton-producers: 1928 and 1932 .................................................. 363
17. Analysis of income groups of workers in Old City planing-mill, by color of workers: 1933 .................................................. 430
18. Hourly wage rates in Old City planing-mill, by color of workers: 1933 .................................................. 436