

Contents

	Preface	ix
	Acknowledgments	xi
1	The Problem of Truth and Paradox	1
2	Fixed Points: Some Basic Facts	33
2A	Preliminary Matters	33
2B	Definability and Indefinability of Truth	49
2C	Coherent Complete Partial Orders	63
2D	The Transfer Theorem	71
2E	The Extended Weak Kleene Scheme	80
3	Fixed Points and the Signification of Truth	85
3A	The Proper Interpretation of Fixed Points	85
3B	Expressive Incompleteness and Hierarchies	91
3C	The Signification Thesis	104
4	The Revision Theory: An Informal Sketch	113
5	A General Theory of Definitions	145
5A	The Semantical Systems S_n	147
5B	Completeness and Conservativeness	156
5C	Revision Sequences and Their Properties	166
5D	The Semantical Systems $S^#$ and S^*	182
6	Truth, Categoricalness, and Necessity	199
6A	Truth I: The Main Lemma	199
6B	Truth II: Restricted Self-Reference	209
6C	Truth III: Rich Self-Reference	218
6D	The Concept "Categorical in L "	229
6E	The Logical Grammar of Necessity	235
7	Truth and Other Circular Concepts	253
	Bibliography	279
	Index	287