CONTENTS

Preface v

PART I

§1 Searle's Original Theory of Speech Acts 1
i. The Problem of Utterance-Meaning 1
ii. Illocutionary Acts, Effects and Intentions 5
a. Grice and Searle - A First Difference 6
b. Grice and Searle - A Second Difference 11
c. Summary of The Strategy of "Speech Acts" 14
d. A Problem Foreboded 18

§2 The Calabrian Crankshaft 21
i. Representation and Communication 21
ii. The Moral of the Story 30

§3 The Intentionalist Turn 37
i. Intentions to Represent - A First Attempt at Analysis 37
ii. Whose Purpose? 40
iii. Causal versus Propositional Relatedness 49
iv. Transition to the Idea of a Theory of Intentionality 54

PART II

§1 Speech Acts as Representations and the Theory of Intentionality 60
i. From Speech Acts to Intentional States 60
ii. Directions of Fit and Aims of Fitting 67
a. Direction of Fit - Its Essence and Source 69
b. Direction of Fit - Its Various Kinds 76
c. Direction of Fit - The Central Concept 77

§2 Statements and Beliefs 79
i. Getting the Words to Fit the World 79
a. Assertives and Aims of Fitting 79
b. Why The Teleological Vocabulary? 87
ii. Getting the "Mind" to Fit the World 92
a. Beliefs and Aims of Fitting 92
b. Beliefs and their Function of Fitting 95
iii. The Truth of Word-to-World Direction of Fit 101
a. Assertion Reconstructed 101
b. An Alternative Vocabulary 107

§3 Direction, Volition and Action 112
i. Getting the World to Fit the Words 112
ii. Getting the World to Fit the "Mind" 120
a. Desires, Success and Satisfaction 122
b. Intentions and Attempts 127
iii. Representation and The Phenomenology of Action 132
a. Prior Intentions and Intentions-in-Action 132
b. Experiences of Acting 134
c. Action - Just How Intentional? 138

§4 The Truth of World-to-Word Direction of Fit 151
i. Directives - Why Representational? 151
ii. Requests - Their Representational Core 154
iii. Orders and Commands 159
iv. Concluding Remarks 164

§5 Commissives 168
i. Threats - A Type of Commissive? 168
a. Threats and Bonds 168
b. Threats, Illocutions and Perlocutions 177
ii. Promising - A Speech Act just like Any Other? 182
a. Searle's Original Analysis 182
b. Promises as Derivative 190
c. Commissive Claiming? 192

PART III

§1 The Intentionalist Analysis of Meaning 196
i. Intrinsic versus Derived Intentionality 196
ii. Analytical Strategy and Conditions of Adequacy 206
a. The General Conception 206
b. Four Conditions of Adequacy 209

§2 Mind at Work 214
i. Assertives and the Mind's Imposition 214 ii. Conditions of Satisfaction and Commitment 217
a. Statements and Beliefs Revisited 219
b. Claims and Commitments 223
iii. Against the Thesis of the Mind's Imposition 226
a. A First Argument 228
b. A Second Argument 237

§3 Declaratives and Double Direction of Fit 244
i. The Concept of Declaration 244
ii. Searle's Analysis 247

§4 Expressives 257
i. Non-Representational Linguistic Intentionality 257
ii. Congratulation and Recognition 260

CONCLUSION

Meaning Things and Meaning Them Seriously 267
i. "Non-Serious Illocutions" 268
ii. Expressing Propositions 273
iii. Concluding Remarks 275

BIBLIOGRAPHY 281