

Contents

	Preface	page vii
	Sources	x
1	Alternate possibilities and moral responsibility	1
2	Freedom of the will and the concept of a person	11
3	Coercion and moral responsibility	26
4	Three concepts of free action	47
5	Identification and externality	58
6	The problem of action	69
7	The importance of what we care about	80
8	What we are morally responsible for	95
9	Necessity and desire	104
10	On bullshit	117
11	Equality as a moral ideal	134
12	Identification and wholeheartedness	159
13	Rationality and the unthinkable	177