

Contents

List of Illustrations ix

PART ONE: The Nature of Moralities

- |    |   |    |
|----|---|----|
| 1  | The genesis of moralities   | 3  |
| 2  | The causes of moral differenceseconomic pressures, power sources, prejudices, objectives                             | 6  |
| 3  | The raw materials of moralitiescompassion, self-defence, desire for approval, love of family                         | 11 |
| 4  | The typical components of moral codesprotection of life, family and food supply                                      | 14 |
| 5  | Extremes and deviationsacquisitive politics, war, inequality, level of altruism, work ethic, asceticism, intolerance | 29 |
| 6  | The characteristics of moral codesreciprocity, altruism, obedience, absolutes, manners                               | 35 |
| 7  | Motivations and sanctionsobjective sanctions, enlightened self-interest, threat of punishment, precedent             | 38 |
| 8  | The sources of moral leadershiptypes of organisation, pressure groups, great originals                               | 42 |
| 9  | Moral training—propagandamotivation, parents, education, churches, myths and fables, saints and heroes, mass media   | 45 |
| 10 | Life cyclescharacteristics of rises and falls  | 50 |

PART TWO: A History of Sin

Introduction	57
1,500,000–3000 BC	59
3000–2000 BC	65
2000–1500 BC	69
1500–1000 BC	73
1000–500 BC	80
500–1 BC	92
AD 1–500	106
500–1000	120
1000–1400	133
1400–1600	151
1600–1700	176
1700–1800	190
1800–1900	205
1900–1992	224

PART THREE: What Next? 255

Bibliography	263
Index	273