CONTENTS

A_{i}	cknowledgments	page ix
In	troduction	1
I	Modern Ethics
1	 The Right and the Good Ancient and Modern Ethics Kant and the Priority of the Right Pluralism and Reasonable Disagreement The Role of Conscience Modern Ethics in Question 	19 19 26 28 30
2	Beyond Religion and Enlightenment The Modern World and Religion The Enlightenment Project The Crisis of the Enlightenment Two Illusory Solutions Universality and Tradition Reason and History	34 41 41 44 49 53 55
3	The Secret Philosophy of Leo Strauss 1 A Weimar Intellectual 2 A Flawed History of Modern Ethics 3 An Elusive Teaching	65 65 71 74

II Beyond Naturalism

4	Nietzsche's Legacy	79
5	Moral Knowledge 1 Truth and Moral Judgment 2 The Indispensability of Normative Truths 3 The Unity of Theoretical and Practical Reason 4 The Perceptual Model of Moral Knowledge 5 Cognitivist Naturalism 6 Morality and Reflection	89 90 93 102 108 111
ш	Liberalism and Modernity
6	Political Liberalism 1 The Idea of Neutrality 2 The Romantic Critique of Individualism 3 Rational Dialogue and Equal Respect 4 Liberal Community 5 The Goals of Political Liberalism	121 121 127 134 141
7	Pluralism and Reasonable Disagreement Political Liberalism The Nature of Pluralism Pluralism and Value Conflict The Modern Character of Pluralism The Nature of Reasonable Disagreement Reasonable Disagreement and Skepticism	152 152 155 158 163 167
8	Carl Schmitt's Critique of Liberal Democracy Modernity and Political Legitimacy The Coherence of Liberal Democracy Discussion and Stability	175 177 181 186
9	Modernity and the Disunity of Reason The Foundations of Modern Democracy: Reflections on Jürgen Habermas 1 Argument and Context 2 Politics and Modernity 3 Liberalism and Democracy	180 205 206 210 217

Index 223