

| | |
|--|------------|
| PREFACE | v |
| PART ONE: Definitions, Forms, and Fallacies of Moral Reasoning | |
| Chapter I: The Nature of Morality | 3 |
| What Is Morality? | 4 |
| Morality as Custom or Practice | 7 |
| Morality and Language | 11 |
| The Principles of Morality | 15 |
| The Aims of Morality | 18 |
| Conclusion | 21 |
| Chapter II: Reasoning in Ethics | 23 |
| Reasoning in General | 23 |
| Syllogisms | 29 |
| Analyzing Arguments | 36 |
| Types of Reasoning | 41 |
| Chapter III: The Levels of Moral Reasoning | 47 |
| The Idea of Levels | 47 |
| A Sample Case: The Abortion Issue | 56 |
| Chapter IV: Obstacles to Moral Reasoning | 63 |
| Prejudices Against Reasoning | 63 |
| Fallacies in Reasoning | 73 |
| Conclusion | 82 |
| PART TWO: Ethical Theories | |
| Chapter V: Kantianism and Utilitarianism | 87 |
| Kantian Ethics | 88 |
| Utilitarian Ethics | 97 |
| Conclusion | 105 |
| Chapter VI: Self-Realization and Natural Law | 109 |
| Self-Realization Theory | 109 |
| Natural Law Theory | 118 |
| Chapter VII: Social Contract Theory | 127 |
| Types of Contractarianism | 127 |
| The Conditions of Free Consent | 128 |

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| Hobbes' Position | 130 |
| Criticisms of Hobbes' Theory | 131 |
| John Locke: Natural Rights | 133 |
| Evaluating Locke's Position | 134 |
| Rawls' Theory of Justice | 135 |
| Examining Rawls' Theory | 136 |
| The Value of Social Contract Theory | 138 |

Chapter VIII: Contemporary Ethical Theories 141

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| Act and Rule Deontology | 142 |
| Act and Rule Utilitarianism | 147 |
| The Pragmatist Critique | 152 |
| Existentialism | 159 |
| Conclusion | 164 |

PART THREE: Developing and Applying a Code

Chapter IX: Developing a Set of Principles 169

| | |
|---|-----|
| Characteristics of Principles | 169 |
| The First Principle: Do No Harm | 176 |
| The Second Principle: Do Not Be Unfair | 180 |
| The Third Principle: Do Not Violate Another's Freedom | 184 |
| Subordinate Principles | 187 |

Chapter X: Applying Moral Principles 195

| | |
|----------------------------------|-----|
| Direct and Indirect Applications | 195 |
| The Steps of Application | 196 |
| Ordering the Principles | 209 |

Chapter XI: Subordinate Moral Rules 217

| | |
|-----------------------------|-----|
| Correlative Positive Duties | 218 |
| The Dual of "Do No Harm" | 220 |
| Conventional Rules | 221 |
| The Moral Community | 226 |
| Conclusion | 234 |

Chapter XII: Critiquing and Implementing Rules 237

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| Seven Steps | 237 |
| Do the Rules Follow the Principles? | 238 |
| Are the Rules Consistent? | 241 |
| Are There Any Counterexamples? | 243 |
| Are the Rules Effective? | 247 |
| How to Make the Rules Effective | 248 |
| Weighing the Consequences | 251 |

| | |
|---|------------|
| Chapter XIII: Judging Individual Acts | 257 |
| Social Roles | 258 |
| Natural Determinants | 266 |
| Conclusion | 276 |
| PART FOUR: Case Studies | |
| Introduction | 283 |
| The Basic Steps of Moral Reasoning | 283 |
| Chapter XIV: Studies in Bioethics | 287 |
| Two Branches of Bioethics | 288 |
| Cases in Clinical Ethics | 289 |
| Cases in Health Care Policy | 294 |
| Chapter XV: Studies in Business Ethics | 299 |
| Business-Customer Relations | 301 |
| Relationships Within Business | 303 |
| Business-Business Relationships | 305 |
| Relationships Between Business and Society | 307 |
| International Relations | 308 |
| Chapter XVI: Personal Ethics | 311 |
| Personal Ethics and Social Issues | 312 |
| Duties to Self and Others | 313 |
| Two Cases in Personal Ethics | 315 |
| Sexual Ethics | 317 |
| The Abortion Issue | 323 |
| Family Relationships | 327 |
| Glossary | 331 |
| Index | 339 |