

Contents

Introduction ~ 1

I ABOUT REFORM

1
The Concept of “Reform” ~ 11

2
What Reform Do We Mean? ~ 26

II CLASSICAL APPROACHES OF THE FUNDAMENTALS OF LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE (USŪL AL-FIQH)

3
Imam ash-Shâfi’i: The Deductive Approach ~ 41

4
The Hanafi School: The Inductive Approach ~ 49

5
The School of Maqâsid: The Higher Objectives of Law ~ 59

6
A Synthesis ~ 77

III
FOR A NEW GEOGRAPHY OF THE SOURCES OF LAW AND JURISPRUDENCE (USÛL AL-FIQH)

7

Determining the Sources of Islamic Law and Jurisprudence ~ 85

8

The Context (al-Wâqi') as a Source of Law ~ 101

9

The Growing Complexity of the Real ~ 113

10

Elaborating an Applied Islamic Ethics ~ 126

IV

CASE STUDIES

11

Islamic Ethics and Medical Sciences ~ 159

12

Culture and the Arts ~ 183

13

Women: Traditions and Liberation ~ 207

14

Ecology and Economy ~ 233

15

Society, Education, and Power ~ 259

16

Ethics and Universals ~ 293

Conclusion ~ 315

Acknowledgments ~ 321

Notes ~ 323

Glossary ~ 359

Index ~ 365