

Contents

1. The Value of Debate 1
 - The Advantages for You 2
2. Understanding the Process 5
 - The Proposition 5
 - Ground Rules for American Debating 8
 - Procedure 9
 - The “Clash” Process 11
 - The Prima Facie Case and the Debate Clash 13
 - Budgeting Time in the Clash Process 15
 - Speakers’ Duties 15
3. Case Building: Underlying Concepts 18
 - The Problems of Proof 18
 - Burdens 20
 - Structural Elements 22
 - The Relationships among the Four Elements 26
4. Research and Reasoning 27
 - Acquiring Knowledge 27
 - Developing Proof 33
5. Constructing Affirmative and Negative Cases 41
 - Constructing the Affirmative Case 41
 - Constructing the Negative Case 55
6. Refutation 60
 - The Purpose of Refutation 60
 - Indirect and Direct Refutation 60
 - Methods of Direct Refutation 62
 - Common Errors in Reasoning 65

- Summary of Principles of Direct Refutation 68
- Organization 68
- Language 72
- Seven Guiding Principles 72

- 7. Cross-Examination 75
 - Goals 76
 - Types of Questions 80
 - Applications 84

- 8. Speakers' Duties 87
 - Constructive Speeches 88
 - Rebuttal Speeches 94

- 9. Language and Delivery 100
 - Verbal and Nonverbal Factors 100
 - Special Problems in Delivery 107

- 10. The Ideal Debate Speaker 112
 - The Necessary Talents 112

- Appendix: The Stock Cases 115

- Glossary 119