

Contents

General Editor's Preface	vii
Preface: My Back Pages	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Introduction: The Flip Side: Let It B	1
1 Get Your 45s On: Terry Melcher, Lost in the Surf and Sun of the 1960s Sound Waves	13
2 How the Midwest Was Won: The Chicago Suburbs Seven, a Mid-1960s Regional Rotation	25
3 Covering Outside the Lines: Hans Fenger and the Langley Schools Music Project	35
4 Geffen Records v. Neil Young: The Battle of the Brands	51
5 Music and Movie Mutuality: Ry Cooder, the Involved Bystander	69
6 World Music Missionaries: Cross Cultural Convergences	85
7 The Vital Visual Voice of the Videotape Editor: Seamlessly Sculpting Graceland: The African Concert	101
8 Rock Around the Cop: Bochco's Broadway Blue Print as Television Musical Muse and Martyr	119
9 Must Sing TV: Pop Rock Sitcom Cameo Obscuras	135
10 Umbilical Musical Chords: Lineage, Legacy and Mom and Pop Pedigree	153
11 Die Another Day: Warren Zevon's Desperado "Deteriorata"	173
Bibliography	195
Index	203