

Contents

Foreword to the Revised and Expanded Edition	ix
Robert J. Schreiter, C.P.P.S.
Acknowledgments	xiii
Preface to the Revised and Expanded Edition	xv
Introduction	xix

PART ONE METHODOLOGICAL ISSUES AND CONCERNS

1. Contextual Theology as a Theological Imperative	3
Contextual Theology as Both New and Traditional	3
Why Theology Must Be Contextual Today	9
Conclusion	15
2. Issues in Contextual Theology	16
Issues of Theological Method	16
Issues of Basic Theological Orientation	21
Issues of Criteria for Orthodoxy	22
Issues of Cultural Identity, Popular Religiosity, and Social Change	25
Indigenization, Contextualization, or Inculturation?	26
3. The Notion and Use of Models	28
The Notion of Model	29
The Use of Models in This Book	31
Procedure of the Following Chapters	33

PART TWO SIX MODELS OF CONTEXTUAL THEOLOGY

4. The Translation Model	37
A Sketch of the Translation Model	38
Examples of the Translation Model	45

5. The Anthropological Model	54
A Sketch of the Model	55
Examples of the Anthropological Model	61
6. The Praxis Model	70
A Sketch of the Model	71
Examples of the Praxis Model	79
7. The Synthetic Model	88
A Sketch of the Model	89
Examples of the Synthetic Model	95
8. The Transcendental Model	103
A Sketch of the Model	103
Examples of the Transcendental Model	109
9. The Countercultural Model	117
A Sketch of the Model	118
Examples of the Countercultural Model	127
Conclusion: Is One Model Better Than Another?	139
Synthetic Tables of the Six Models	141
Notes	145
Index	181