

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations	ix
Abbreviations and Texts	xi
Notes on the Contributors	xiii

Introduction	1
Curtis Perry and John Watkins

PART I. TEXTS IN TRANSITION

1. Shakespeare's Fickle Fee-Simple: A Lover's Complaint , Nostalgia, and the Transition from Feudalism to Capitalism	21
Christopher Warley
2. Shakespeare's Resurrections	45
Sarah Beckwith
3. Towards a History of Performativity: Sacrament, Social Contract, and The Merchant of Venice	68
Elizabeth Fowler
4. Losing France and Becoming England: Shakespeare's King John and the Emergence of State-Based Diplomacy	78
John Watkins

PART II. MEDIEVALISM IN SHAKESPEAREAN ENGLAND

5. The Voice of the Author in 'The Phoenix and Turtle': Chaucer, Shakespeare, Spenser	103
Patrick Cheney

6. Recursive Origins: Print History and Shakespeare's 2 Henry VI William Kuskin	126
7. Chantry, Chronicle, Cockpit: Henry V and the Forms of History Brian Walsh	151
8. 'For They Are Englishmen': National Identities and the Early Modern Drama of Medieval Conquest Curtis Perry	172
PART III. SHAKESPEARE AND THE RESOURCES OF MEDIEVAL CULTURE
9. King Lear and the Summons of Death Michael O'Connell	199
10. Marvels and Counterfeits: False Resurrections in the Chester Antichrist and 1 Henry IV Karen Sawyer Marsalek	217
11. Shakespeare's Medieval Morality: The Merchant of Venice and the Gesta Romanorum Rebecca Krug	241
Bibliography	263
Index	285