

Table of contents

Acknowledgements	VII
Stancetaking in discourse: An introduction Robert Englebretson	1
Using a corpus to investigate stance quantitatively and qualitatively Susan Hunston	27
Linking identity and dialect through stancetaking Barbara Johnstone	49
Grammatical resources for social purposes: Some aspects of stancetaking in colloquial Indonesian conversation Robert Englebretson	69
Subjective and intersubjective uses of generalizations in English conversations Joanne Scheibman	111
The stance triangle John W. Du Bois	139
The role of I guess in conversational stancetaking Elise Kärkkäinen	183
Stance markers in spoken Finnish: Minun mielestä and minusta in assessments Mirka Rauniomaa	221
Stancetaking as an interactional activity: Challenging the prior speaker Tiina Keisanen	253
Positioning and alignment as activities of stancetaking in news interviews Pentti Haddington	283
Name index	319
Subject index	321