

Table of Contents

|  |    |
|--|----|
| Chapter 1: Introduction .....   | 1  |
| 1.1 Tension between Reconciliation and Conflict in 2 Corinthians .....   | 1  |
| 1.2 History of Interpretation: Attempts to Resolve the Tension .....   | 7  |
| 1.2.1 Events which Occasioned the Writing of 2 Corinthians .....   | 9  |
| 1.2.2 Partition Theories .....   | 12 |
| 1.2.2.1 J.S. Semler and His Foundational Work for Partition Theories .....                                     | 12 |
| 1.2.2.2 The Hausrath-Kennedy Hypothesis .....  | 13 |
| 1.2.2.3 The Weiss-Bultmann Hypothesis .....  | 15 |
| 1.2.2.4 The Schmithals-Bornkamm Hypothesis .....   | 16 |
| 1.2.2.5 The Semler-Windisch Hypothesis .....   | 18 |
| 1.2.2.6 Other Partition Theories .....   | 19 |
| 1.2.3 Unity Theories .....   | 22 |
| 1.2.3.1 Unity in Composition but Not in Content .....  | 23 |
| 1.2.3.2 Unity in Composition and in Content .....  | 25 |
| 1.2.3.3 The Varying Tone of the Letter as Due to Rhetoric .....  | 28 |
| 1.2.3.4 R. Bieringer's Model Theory for 2 Cor 7:5–16 .....   | 31 |
| 1.3 Thesis: 2 Corinthians: A Letter about Reconciliation .....   | 34 |
| 1.4 Method: Hellenistic Rhetoric, Epistolography and Psychagogy .....  | 37 |
| 1.4.1 2 Corinthians and Hellenistic Rhetoric .....   | 39 |
| 1.4.2 2 Corinthians and Hellenistic Epistolography .....   | 45 |
| 1.4.3 2 Corinthians and Hellenistic Psychagogy .....   | 49 |
| 1.4.4 Describing, Not Prescribing, Paul's Argumentative Strategy .....   | 51 |
| 1.5 Delimitation of the Thesis .....   | 51 |
|    |    |
| Chapter 2: Praise and Idealization in Hellenistic Rhetoric, Psychagogy    and Epistolography ..... | 53 |
| 2.1 Who Were the Moral Guides? .....   | 53 |
| 2.2 Epideictic Rhetoric – A Variegated Genre .....   | 55 |
| 2.3 Hortative Praise in Hellenistic Psychagogy .....   | 63 |
| 2.4 Hortative Praise in Hellenistic Epistolography .....   | 66 |
| 2.5 Classical Education: Imitation of That which Is Praiseworthy .....   | 68 |
| 2.6 Conclusion and Prospectus .....  | 69 |
|    |    |
| Chapter 3: 2 Cor 7:5–16 as Idealized Praise with a Hortative Objective .....                            | 71 |
| 3.1 2 Cor 2:5–11: Attempt at Fostering Reconciliation by Restoringthe Offender .....                       | 71 |
| 3.2 The ἀδικήσας-Conflict as Part of a Bigger Conflict? .....  | 81 |

|       |   |     |
|-------|---|-----|
| 3.2.1 | The ἀδικήσας-Conflict and Paul's Second Visit .....   | 82  |
| 3.2.2 | Other Parts of the Conflict and Paul's Second Visit.....  | 89  |
| 3.2.3 | Differences and Similarities between Various Parts of the Overall Conflict during Paul's Second Visit ..... | 90  |
| 3.2.4 | Implications for Interpreting 2 Cor 7:5–16.....   | 93  |
| 3.3   | 2 Cor 7:5–16 as an Idealization.....  | 95  |
| 3.3.1 | Amplification in Hellenistic Rhetoric.....  | 95  |
| 3.3.2 | Rhetorical Amplification in 2 Cor 7:5–16.....   | 97  |
| 3.4   | 2 Cor 7:5–16: An Appeal to Full Reconciliation.....   | 104 |
| 3.5   | 1 Thess 3 as a Parallel Line of Argument for 2 Cor 7:5–16.....  | 106 |
| 3.6   | The Use of Example in Hellenistic Material and in 2 Cor 7:5–16.....   | 113 |
| 3.6.1 | Person-Example as Role Model.....   | 113 |
| 3.6.2 | The Perspicuity of the Example.....   | 119 |
| 3.6.3 | The Obligation to Continue Acting as a Role Model .....   | 120 |
| 3.7   | Implicitness as a Persuasive Device and 2 Cor 7:5–16.....   | 122 |
| 3.7.1 | Implied Communication and the Effect on the Reader.....   | 123 |
| 3.7.2 | Implicitness as a Persuasive Device.....  | 132 |
| 3.7.3 | Motives for Implied Speech/Literature.....  | 134 |
| 3.7.4 | Clarity According to Epistolary Handbooks.....  | 137 |
| 3.8   | Conclusion.....   | 139 |

Chapter 4: Expressions of Confidence which Undergird Appeals for Reconciliation..... 141

|         |  |     |
|---------|--|-----|
| 4.1     | Different Types of Expressions of Confidence.....                            | 143 |
| 4.1.1   | Expressions of Confidence in the Addressee.....                              | 143 |
| 4.1.2   | Expressions of Confidence in God about or for the Addressee.....             | 148 |
| 4.1.3   | Expressions of Self-Confidence.....  | 148 |
| 4.2     | Confidence in God.....   | 150 |
| 4.2.1   | 2 Cor 1:7: Partners in Consolation and Suffering .....                       | 150 |
| 4.2.1.1 | 2 Cor 1:3–11 as Introductory Thanksgiving (Berakah).....                     | 150 |
| 4.2.1.2 | 2 Cor 1:3–7: Concomitance in Consolation and Sufferings.....                 | 153 |
| 4.2.1.3 | 2 Cor 1:7 as Confidence in God about the Addressee .....                     | 157 |
| 4.2.1.4 | The Implicit Appeal: Partners in Consolation and Suffering .....             | 158 |
| 4.2.2   | 2 Cor 1:10: God Will Continue to Rescue Paul .....                           | 161 |
| 4.2.2.1 | Paul's Prior Confidence in God (2 Cor 1:8–10).....                           | 162 |
| 4.2.2.2 | Expectation of Continued Rescue (2 Cor 1:10).....                            | 163 |
| 4.2.3   | 2 Cor 9:15: Confidence in God concerning the Collection.....                 | 166 |
| 4.3     | Confidence in the Addressee and Appeals for Reconciliation in 2 Cor 1–7..... | 169 |
| 4.3.1   | 2 Cor 1:13b–14: Perfect Mutuality in Boasting .....                          | 169 |
| 4.3.1.1 | 2 Cor 1:13b–14: An Expression of Confidence in the Addressee .....           | 170 |
| 4.3.1.2 | The Appeal: Perfect Mutuality in Boasting .....                              | 172 |
| 4.3.2   | 2 Cor 1:15: Amplified Expression of Confidence.....                          | 176 |
| 4.3.3   | 2 Cor 2:3b: Common Joy .....   | 177 |
| 4.3.3.1 | An Expression of Confidence in the Past Tense.....                           | 178 |
| 4.3.3.2 | Still a Relevant Expression of Confidence?.....                              | 179 |
| 4.3.3.3 | The Appeal: Common Joy.....  | 180 |

|  |   |     |
|--|---|-----|
| 4.3.4  | 2 Cor 5:11: Well Known to the Corinthians' Consciences .....                                    | 181 |
| 4.3.4.1  | Paul's "Fear of the Lord" (5:11a).....  | 182 |
| 4.3.4.2  | "We Try to Persuade Men" (5:11b).....   | 183 |
| 4.3.4.3  | Paul is Well Known to God (5:11c) .....   | 185 |
| 4.3.4.4  | The Hope: Well Known also to the Corinthians (5:11d) .....                                      | 186 |
| 4.3.5  | 2 Cor 7:4: Open Hearts.....   | 187 |
| 4.3.5.1  | 2 Cor 7:4 as a Crux Interpretum .....  | 188 |
| 4.3.5.2  | The Appeal for Reconciliation in 2 Cor 6:11–13 and 7:2–3 .....                                  | 189 |
| 4.3.5.3  | Paul's παρηγορία in 2 Cor 7:4a.....  | 194 |
| 4.3.5.4  | A Formal Literary Break between 2 Cor 7:4 and 7:5?.....   | 197 |
| 4.3.5.5  | Various Interpretations of 2 Cor 7:4.....   | 200 |
| 4.3.5.6  | The Rhetorical Function of 2 Cor 7:4.....   | 206 |
| 4.3.6  | 2 Cor 7:14: Amplified Expression of Confidence .....  | 208 |
| 4.3.7  | 2 Cor 7:16: Reconciliation and Collection.....  | 210 |
| 4.3.7.1  | 2 Cor 7:16 as Amplified Expression of Confidence .....  | 211 |
| 4.3.7.2  | The Appeal: Reconciliation (7:5–15) and Collection (Chs. 8–9) .....                             | 213 |
| 4.4  | Confidence in the Addressee and Appeals for Reconciliationand Collection in 2 Cor 8–9.....  | 216 |
| 4.4.1  | Collection and Reconciliation – Some Introductory Remarks .....                                 | 216 |
| 4.4.2  | 2 Cor 8:5: Giving Themselves to Paul.....   | 219 |
| 4.4.3  | 2 Cor 8:7–8: Eulogy, Collection and Love for Paul .....   | 221 |
| 4.4.4  | 2 Cor 8:22b: Appeal for Collection .....  | 226 |
| 4.4.5  | 2 Cor 8:24: Collection as Proof of Love for Paul.....   | 227 |
| 4.4.6  | 2 Cor 9:1–5: Praise Obligates .....   | 230 |
|  | Excursus I: The Relationship between 2 Cor 8 and 9.....   | 234 |
| 4.5  | Confidence in the Addressee and Appeals for Reconciliationin 2 Cor 10–13 .....              | 242 |
| 4.5.1  | 2 Cor 10:15b: Appeal for Expansion among the Corinthians .....                                  | 242 |
| 4.5.2  | 2 Cor 13:6: Hope to Be Recognized as Not Having Failed .....                                    | 249 |
| 4.6  | Conclusion.....   | 251 |
| Chapter 5: Criticism as a Device for Correction and Reconciliationin 2 Cor 10–13..... |   |     |
| 5.1  | Criticism and Threats as a Device for Correction .....  | 254 |
| 5.1.1  | In Hellenistic Psychagogy .....   | 254 |
| 5.1.2  | In Hellenistic Epistolography .....   | 257 |
| 5.1.3  | In Paul's Earlier Tearful Letter .....  | 258 |
| 5.2  | Threats as a Device for Obedience in 2 Cor 10:1–11 .....  | 260 |
| 5.2.1  | 2 Cor 10:1–11 as a Thematic Unit .....  | 260 |
| 5.2.2  | The Background for the Criticism of Paul in 2 Cor 10:1b and 10:10.....                          | 261 |
| 5.2.3  | Who Stands Behind the Criticism of Paul in 2 Cor 10:1–11?.....                                  | 268 |
| 5.2.4  | Gentleness and Harshness in 2 Cor 10:1–2.....   | 273 |
| 5.2.4.1  | Solutions which Mitigate the Contrast between Gentlenessand Harshness in 2 Cor 10:1–2 ..... | 273 |
| 5.2.4.2  | R. Leivestad: "Kenotic Revelation" .....  | 274 |
|  | Excursus II: Gentleness and Harshness, Weakness and Boldnessin the Hellenistic Mindset..... | 277 |
| 5.2.4.3  | Gentleness and Boldness as Alternatives in 2 Cor 10:1–2.....                                    | 284 |

|   |   |     |
|---|---|-----|
| 5.2.4.4   | Criticism of Other Alternative Interpretations of 2 Cor 10:1–2 .....              | 288 |
| 5.2.5   | Paul's Boldness and the Accusation of Acting κατὰ σάρκα (10:2).....        | 292 |
| 5.2.6   | Paul at War (2 Cor 10:3–6).....   | 296 |
| 5.2.7   | Paul's Goal: The Corinthians' Complete Obedience (2 Cor 10:6).....                | 299 |
| 5.2.8   | Paul's Authority (2 Cor 10:7–9).....  | 302 |
|   | Excursus III: Βαρύς in Greek Language.....                                 | 310 |
| 5.2.9   | Criticism and Response in 2 Cor 10:10–11 .....                                    | 316 |
| 5.2.10  | 2 Cor 10:1–11 and the Contrast in Tone between Chs. 1–9 and Chs. 10–13 ...        | 325 |
| 5.2.11  | Summary of Conclusions about 2 Cor 10:1–11 .....                                  | 330 |
| 5.3   | 2 Cor 11:16–21a and 11:31–32: The Opponents' Tyrannyand Paul's Weakness ..... | 332 |
| 5.3.1   | 2 Cor 11:16–21a: The Opponents' Tyranny and Paul's "Weakness".....                | 332 |
| 5.3.2   | 2 Cor 11:31–32: A Parody of " Corona Muralis " .....                       | 337 |
| 5.4   | 2 Cor 12:20–21: Undesired Consequences of Punishment .....                        | 339 |
| 5.5   | 2 Cor 13:1–10: Paul's Willingness to Appear Weak.....                             | 341 |
| 5.5.1   | Paul's Warning (2 Cor 13:1–2).....  | 342 |
| 5.5.2   | Christ and Paul, Weakness and Power (2 Cor 13:3b–4).....                          | 342 |
| 5.5.3   | The Corinthians' Self-Examination and Paul's Apostolicity (2 Cor 13:5–6)...       | 347 |
| 5.5.4   | Building Up the Corinthians and Appearing Weak (2 Cor 13:7–10).....               | 351 |
| 5.5.5   | 2 Cor 13:1–10: Two Alternative Ways of Coming to Corinth.....                     | 353 |
| 5.6   | The Risks and Limits of Using Threats as a Hortative Device.....                  | 354 |
| 5.7   | The Linking of Apostolic Power and Punishment as a Problem.....                   | 356 |
| Chapter 6: The Overall Strategy of Argument in 2 Corinthians ..... |   | 360 |
| 6.1   | The Argumentative Function of 2 Cor 2:14–7:4 .....                                | 361 |
| 6.2   | The Argumentative Function of the "Fool's Speech"(2 Cor 11:21–12:10).....     | 363 |
| 6.3   | The Argumentative Function of the Letter-Closing(2 Cor 13:11–13).....         | 365 |
| 6.4   | Other Important Observations .....  | 370 |
| 6.5   | Outline of 2 Corinthians .....  | 373 |
|   | Excursus IV: The Role of Timothy in the Conflict.....                             | 376 |
| Chapter 7: Conclusion and Summary .....                            |   | 379 |
| Appendix .....  |   | 392 |
| Bibliography .....  |   | 395 |
| Index of References.....  |   | 421 |
| Index of Modern Authors.....  |   | 423 |
| Index of Subjects.....  |   | 430 |