

Contents

BATTLE-PIECES AND ASPECTS OF THE WAR

| | |
|--|----|
| The Portent | 5 |
| Misgivings | 7 |
| The Conflict of Convictions | 8 |
| Apathy and Enthusiasm | 12 |
| The March into Virginia | 14 |
| Lyon | 16 |
| Ball's Bluff | 19 |
| Dupont's Round Fight | 20 |
| The Stone Fleet | 21 |
| Donelson | 23 |
| The Cumberland | 37 |
| In the Turret | 39 |
| The Temeraire | 41 |
| A Utilitarian View of the Monitor's Fight | 44 |
| Shiloh | 46 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| The Battle for the Mississippi | 47 |
| Malvern Hill | 49 |
| The Victor of Antietam | 51 |
| Battle of Stone River, Tennessee | 54 |
| Running the Batteries | 56 |
| Stonewall Jackson | 59 |
| Stonewall Jackson (Ascribed to a Virginian) | 60 |
| Gettysburg | 62 |
| The House-top | 64 |
| Look-out Mountain | 65 |
| Chattanooga | 66 |
| The Armies of the Wilderness | 69 |
| On the Photograph of a Corps Commander | 77 |
| The Swamp Angel | 78 |
| The Battle for the Bay | 80 |
| Sheridan at Cedar Creek | 84 |
| In the Prison Pen | 86 |
| The College Colonel | 87 |
| The Eagle of the Blue | 89 |
| A Dirge for McPherson | 90 |
| At the Cannon's Mouth | 92 |
| The March to the Sea | 94 |
| The Frenzy in the Wake | 97 |
| The Fall of Richmond | 99 |
| The Surrender at Appomattox | 100 |
| A Canticle | 101 |
| The Martyr | 104 |
| "The Coming Storm" | 106 |
| Rebel Color-bearers at Shiloh | 107 |
| The Muster | 109 |
| Aurora-Borealis | 111 |
| The Released Rebel Prisoner | 112 |
| A Grave near Petersburg, Virginia | 114 |
| "Formerly a Slave" | 115 |

| | |
|--------------------------------|-----|
| The Apparition | 116 |
| Magnanimity Baffled | 117 |
| On the Slain Collegians | 118 |
| America | 120 |

VERSES INSCRIPTIVE AND MEMORIAL

| | |
|---|-----|
| On the Home Guards who perished in the Defense of Lexington, Missouri | 122 |
| Inscription for Graves at Pea Ridge, Arkansas | 123 |
| The Fortitude of the North under the Disaster of the Second Manassas | 124 |
| On the Men of Maine killed in the Victory of Baton Rouge, Louisiana | 125 |
| An Epitaph | 126 |
| Inscription for Marye's Heights, Fredericksburg | 127 |
| The Mound by the Lake | 128 |
| On the Slain at Chickamauga | 129 |
| An uninscribed Monument on one of the Battle-fields of the Wilderness | 130 |
| On Sherman's Men who fell in the Assault of Kenesaw Mountain, Georgia | 131 |
| On the Grave of a young Cavalry Officer killed in the Valley of Virginia | 132 |
| A Requiem for Soldiers lost in Ocean Transports | 133 |
| On a natural Monument in a field of Georgia | 134 |
| Commemorative of a Naval Victory | 135 |
| Presentation to the Authorities, by Privates, of Colors captured in Battles ending in the Surrender of Lee | 137 |
| The Returned Volunteer to his Rifle | 138 |

| | |
|------------------------|-----|
| THE SCOUT TOWARD ALDIE | 139 |
| LEE IN THE CAPITOL | 163 |

| | |
|-----------------------------------|-----|
| The Same | 301 |
| The Parthenon | 302 |
| Greek Masonry | 304 |
| Greek Architecture | 305 |
| Off Cape Colonna | 306 |
| The Archipelago | 307 |
| Syra | 309 |
| Disinterment of the Hermes | 312 |
| The Apparition | 313 |
| In the Desert | 314 |
| The Great Pyramid | 315 |

L'ENVOY

| | |
|--|-----|
| The Return of the Sire de Nesle | 317 |
|--|-----|

UNCOLLECTED POEM

| | |
|--|-----|
| Inscription For the Dead At Fredericksburgh | 321 |
|--|-----|

EDITORIAL APPENDIX

HISTORICAL NOTE • By Hershel Parker

| | |
|---|-----|
| I. A Poet in Prose: How Critics Prepared Melville to Think of Himself as a Poet | 331 |
| II. Melville as Hearer and Reciter of Poetry | 342 |
| III. The Omnipresence of Poetry, 1820s–1848 | 349 |
| IV. The Renewed Power of Poetry in Melville's Life, 1849–1856 | 385 |
| V. The Status of Poetry and the Temptation of Flunkeyism | 418 |
| VI. A Nonpartisan Becoming a Poet During the Risorgimento | 426 |
| VII. Melville's Progress as Poet, 1857(?) to May 1860 | 438 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| VIII. Possible Contents of Poems (1860) | 448 |
| IX. On the Meteor : Melville When He Thought He Was a Published Poet | 457 |
| X. His Verse Still Unpublished, Melville Defines Himself as Poet, 1861–1862 | 464 |
| XI. Battle-Pieces and Aspects of the War : Melville's Second Volume of Poems | 498 |
| XII. The Trajectory of Melville's Literary Career | 513 |
| Postscript on Reception | 518 |
| NOTE ON PRINTING AND PUBLISHING HISTORY | |
| By G. Thomas Tanselle | 529 |
| TEXTUAL RECORD | |
| General Note on the Text | 579 |
| Notes on Individual Poems | |
| Battle-Pieces | 623 |
| John Marr | 674 |
| Timoleon | 749 |
| Uncollected Poem | 866 |
| RELATED DOCUMENTS | |
| Melville's Dated Reading in Poetry and Poetics: A Chronological Short-Title List | |
| Prepared by Robert D. Madison | 869 |
| Melville's Marginalia on Poetry and Poetics | |
| Prepared by Dennis Berthold | 875 |
| The Sources of Melville's Notes (1849–1851) in a Shakespeare Volume • Prepared by Hershel Parker | 905 |
| Melville's Notes in a Hazlitt Volume | 917 |
| Melville's Notes in a Vasari Volume | 921 |
| WORKS CITED | 923 |
| INDEX OF TITLES AND FIRST LINES | 935 |