

Table of Contents

Einführung	9
Introduction	11
Oliver Zöllner International Broadcasters, Audience Research and a Conference An Overview of Methods and Functions	13
International Audience Research and the Role of CIBAR
Graham Mytton Audience Research for International Radio Broadcasters A Toolkit for Small to Medium-Sized Stations	25
Hélène Robillard-Frayne Survey of CIBAR Members Concerning Developments in Their Organizations	41
Global Audiences
Colin M Wilding 151 Million Listeners – But What Does It Mean? Uses and Misuses of Global Audience Estimates	61
Hélène Robillard-Frayne The Process of Estimating the Global Audience at Radio Canada International	71
Defining Audiences
Colin M Wilding BBC Audience Segmentation Testing Strategy By Research	77

Gene Parta
Mass Audiences, Elite Audiences and Target Audiences
Definition and Measurement Issues	85
Valentina Zlobina
New Trends in the Voice of Russia's Audience Segmentation	93
Case Studies
William Bell
Response Effects in a Third World Country
Acquiescence Bias in Haiti	103
Allen Cooper/Christoph Sahn
Getting Sampling And Fieldwork Right
The Ethiopian Experience	117
Daniel Nobi/Roger Nouma
International Radio and Television Audiences
in Three African Metropoles	125
Roland Schürhoff
How German Travellers Abroad Use Deutsche Welle
Results of a National Survey	129
Carole Paplorey
Towards a New Audience Measurement System for Cable and
Satellite Networks in France	135
Hélène Robillard-Frayne
Some Thoughts on the Contribution of Audience Research Concerning
Partner Stations for International Radio Broadcasters	137
National Images and International Broadcasting
Roland Schürhoff
Image Of and Sympathy Towards Germany Abroad
Does Using Deutsche Welle Programmes Reflect Attitudes
vis-à-vis Germany?	143
Oliver Zöllner
Images of Germany and Its International Television
Results of a Qualitative Study in Buenos Aires	151

Digital Challenges

Peter Senger

The Future Of Shortwave?

Digital Radio in the Long, Medium and Shortwave Bands 161

Michel Penneroux

Keeping Shortwave in the Public Ears

Strategies for Enhancing Its Awareness 173

Online Perspectives

Allen Cooper

The Developing World Gets Connected

International Broadcasting and the Internet 177

Mark Rhodes

Internet Use: the Digital Future

Results From a Survey in Romania 185

Wilfried Runde

DW-WORLD and I-TV

Developing Inhabited Internet Television 193

Methodology Harmonization

Allen Cooper

CIBAR Harmonization Guidelines

An Introduction to the 3rd Edition 199

Annex

Harmonized Audience Measurement For International Broadcasting

(3rd edition) 203

Contributors 233