

---

Contents

---

INTRODUCTION	1
I BLACKS, JEWS, AND OTHERS
1 The Peoples of America	17
2 Negroes and Jews: The New Challenge to Pluralism	29
3 E. Franklin Frazier and the Negro Family	44
4 Ethnic Groups and Education: Toward the Tolerance of Difference	57
5 Blacks and Ethnic Groups: The Difference and the Political Difference It Makes	70
II CULTURAL PLURALISM AND BILINGUALISM
6 The Problem of Ethnic Studies	97
7 American Pluralism: Voluntarism or State Action?	126
8 Bilingualism: Will It Work?	145
III THE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION DEBATE
9 Affirmative Discrimination: For and Against	159
10 Who's Available?	182
11 Liberty, Equality, Fraternity – and Ethnicity	209
IV THE INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVE
12 The Universalization of Ethnicity	233
13 Individual Rights against Group Rights	254

14	Federalism and Ethnicity: The American Solution	274
15	Europe's Ethnic Problem	293
V AMERICA NOW
16	The Politics of a Multiethnic Society
	Notes	339
	Credits	354
	Index	356