

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vi

Introduction 3

The Historical Context: Repast and Revolution 4

The Semiotic Universe of the Meal 9

Types of Meal Signs 19

The Criteria for the Selection of Novels 21

1. Balzac / The Meal as Metonym and Index of Social and Economic Spheres 23
 - The Effects of Food on the Human Personality 37
 - The Meal as Mimesis: Food and Its Relation to Culture, History and Politics in La Comédie humaine 45
2. Sand / The Meal as Symbol of Ethical Distance Between the Classes: Gastro-alimentary Antitheses in the Novels of George Sand 55
 - Toward a Natural Symbolism: Meals as a Manifestation of Rural Customs 61
 - Ceremonial Meals 66
 - Communal Banquets: The Ultimate Expression of Group Socialization 74
3. Sue and Hugo / An Alimentary Portrait of the Ghetto: The Meal as a Signal for Reform 91
 - 'Le Ventre de Paris': Eating Practices of the Poor and Disenfranchised 94
 - Actual and Virtual Effects of Starvation on Nineteenth-Century French Society: Deprivation as Divergence, Deprivation as Convergence 102
 - Transitions and Transformations: Meals as Models of Convergence 120
4. Flaubert / Aesthetic and Ideological Coalescence in the Alimentary Sign: Madame Bovary 131
 - 'Bovarysme' and the Alimentary Sign 134
 - The Major Banquets of Madame Bovary: A Confluence of Codes 149

viii Contents

Conclusion 171

Notes 187

Glossary of Metafictional Terms 201

Selected Bibliography 205

Index 212