

Contents

Contributors vii

Preface ix

Introduction xi

PART I. HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE

1. G. Stanley Hall: Vow on Mount Owen 3
Mortimer Herbert Appley
2. G. Stanley Hall and His Successors: A History of the First Half-Century of Psychology at Johns Hopkins 21
Philip J. Pauly
3. A Psychology for Our Technological Society; or, A Tale of Two
Laboratories 52
Alphonse Chapanis
4. Psychology in Recent Years at Johns Hopkins 71
Stewart H. Hulse and Bert F. Green, Jr.

PART II. PSYCHOLOGY AND THE UNITS OF BEHAVIOR

5. The Lateral Hypothalamic Double-Disconnection Syndrome:
A Reappraisal and a New Theory for Recovery of Function 79
Philip Teitelbaum
6. Localization of the Essential Memory-Trace System for a Basic
Form of Associative Learning in the Mammalian Brain 125
Richard F. Thompson, David A. McCormick, and David G. Lavond
7. Caffeine: Historical, Behavioral, and Molecular Features 172
Solomon H. Snyder and Pamela B. Sklar

PART III. COGNITIVE AND SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY AND THE ORGANIZATION OF BEHAVIOR

8. Interactions of Stimulus and Organism in Perception    199
Wendell R. Garner
9. Linguistic Relativity    241
Roger Brown
10. Dismembering Cognition    277
George A. Miller
11. Social Behavioral Effects of a First Cesarean Delivery on Both
Parents    299
Doris R. Entwisle

PART IV. THE FUTURE

12. The Journey Is Everything: General-Experimental Psychology in the United States after a Hundred Years    365
William Bevan

G. Stanley Hall Centennial Contributors    399

Name Index    401

Subject Index    411