

Contents

Introduction	1
1. The significance of the early Christians in Ephesus	1
2. Recent Research on the early Christians in Ephesus	2
3. The aims of this book	4
4. Which New Testament documents are connected with Ephesus?	6
5. What makes a group a group?	8
Chapter 1: The Context	11
1. The City of Ephesus	11
1.1 The History and Significance of Ephesus	11
1.2 Population	17
1.3 The Strategic Location of Ephesus	17
2. Artemis of Ephesus	19
2.1 The Temple of Artemis	20
2.2 The Divine Attributes of Artemis of Ephesus	21
2.3 The Characteristics of the Cult	24
2.4 The Temple of Artemis and Economics	25
2.5 Artemis of Ephesus – A unique bond	27
3. The Imperial Cult in Ephesus	30
3.1 The Provincial Imperial Cult	30
3.2 Municipal Imperial Cults	33
3.3 The Presence of the Imperial Cult in Ephesus	35
4. The Jewish Community in Ephesus	37
4.1 The founding of the community	37
4.2 Evidence from decrees preserved in Josephus and Philo	38
4.3 A Jewish synagogue	43
4.4 Further evidence from inscriptions	44
4.5 The city-wide organisation of Jews in Ephesus	48
4.6 Later literary evidence	49
4.7 The size of the Jewish community in Ephesus	50
4.8 Conclusions	51
5. Overall Conclusions	52

Part One
Beginnings in Ephesus

Chapter 2: Paul in Ephesus: the evidence of his letters	53
1. 1 Corinthians	54
1.1 1 Cor 1:1	54
1.2 1 Cor 1:11	55
1.3 1 Cor 4:9-13	56
1.4 1 Cor 4:17 and Timothy	57
1.5 1 Cor 15:32	58
1.6 1 Cor 16:1-4: Ephesus and the Collection	63
1.7 1 Cor 16:8-9	64
1.8 1 Cor 16:12	67
1.9 1 Cor 16:19-20	70
1.10 1 Corinthians as a whole	73
2. 2 Corinthians	73
2.1 Titus' two visits to Corinth, and Paul's "painful" visit	73
2.2 2 Cor 1:8-10	75
2.3 2 Cor 4:8-9; 6:4-10; 11:23-33; 12:10: Catalogues of Suffering	81
3. Was Paul Imprisoned in Ephesus?	83
4. Do any of Paul's other letters provide evidence for his time in Ephesus?	88
4.1 Galatians	88
4.2 Was Romans 16 to Ephesus?	88
4.3 Ephesians	89
4.4 Did the first collection of Paul's Letters occur in Ephesus?	90
5. The significance of house churches	94
6. Overall Conclusions	99
6.1 Information about Paul	99
6.2 Information about Christians in Ephesus	101
6.3 The evidence of Acts	102
 Chapter 3: Acts and the early Christians in Ephesus: Beginnings and Success	 104
1. The value of the evidence provided by Acts	104
1.1 The reliability of the Ephesian material in Acts	104
2. Unknown founders of the Christian community in Ephesus?	107
3. Paul, Priscilla and Aquila arrive in Ephesus and Priscilla and Aquila's activity in the city (Acts 18:18-21, 26)	110
4. Apollos in Ephesus (Acts 18:24-8)	115

4.1	Apollos prior to his instruction by Priscilla and Aquila (Acts 18:24-5)	117
4.2	Apollos' instruction by Priscilla and Aquila (Acts 18:26)	123
4.3	After Apollos' instruction by Priscilla and Aquila (Acts 18:27-8)	123
5.	Jewish Christians in Ephesus prior to Paul	125
6.	Paul's first converts in Ephesus - the Ephesian Twelve (19:1-7)	127
6.1	Luke's purpose in telling the story	127
6.2	Historicity	130
6.3	What does the story tell us about Christians in Ephesus?	132
7.	The success of Paul's work in Ephesus	134
7.1	Luke and hyperbole	137
7.2	A one-sided portrait	138
7.3	Yet according to his letters, Paul had some success in Ephesus	138
7.4	Features of Paul's success according to Luke	140
7.4.1	Success among Jews, followed by opposition (18:19-21; 19:8-10, 17)	140
7.4.2	Success among Gentiles (19:10, 17-18, 26-7)	143
7.4.3	Success in the province of Asia (19:10, 26)	145
7.4.4	Success in performing miracles and exorcisms (19:11-12, 13-17)	146
7.4.5	Success over the power of magic (19:18-20)	149
8.	Overall Conclusions	152

Chapter 4: Acts and the early Christians in Ephesus:

	Endings and Departure	155
1.	The riot in Ephesus (Acts 19:23-40)	155
1.1	General indications of historicity	157
1.2	Objections to the historicity of the passage	157
1.2.1	Comparison with Paul's letters	157
1.2.2	Paul is marginal to the story	159
1.2.3	Demetrius' role in the riot	159
1.2.4	Alexander's sudden introduction in the narrative (19:33-4) ...	160
1.2.5	The attitude of the town clerk (Acts 19:35-40)	161
1.2.6	"Proconsuls" (Acts 19:38)	163
1.3	Are the specific thematic and theological points made by Luke in this passage based in history?	163
1.3.1	An Impact on the Artemis cult?	164
1.3.2	That Christianity is not a threat to the good order of the Empire	165
1.3.3	The social level of Christianity's new "friends"	166

1.4 If the account of the riot contains some historically reliable information, then what do we learn from it about Christians in Ephesus?	168
2. Events subsequent to the riot	170
2.1 Paul's departure from Ephesus	170
2.2 Trophimus and the Collection (Acts 20:4; 21:29)	171
3. The Miletus speech (Acts 20:17-35)	172
3.1 The Location	172
3.2 The contents and origin of the speech	176
3.3 Cases in which Luke is probably dependent on local Ephesian tradition	183
3.3.1 Paul's tears and trials in Ephesus (Acts 20:19)	183
3.3.2 Teaching in public and from house to house (Acts 20:20)	184
3.3.3 Working with his hands for his own support, and to support others (Acts 20:34)	186
3.4 Cases in which Luke is probably dependent on general Pauline tradition, but which he has appropriately applied to the Ephesian community	187
3.4.1 Elders in Ephesus (v17) who are also called overseers in v28	187
3.4.2 Testifying "to both Jews and Greeks" (v21)	188
3.4.3 Fierce wolves from without and the rise of those distorting the truth from within (v29-30)	189
3.4.4 Three years in Ephesus (v31)	195
3.5 Conclusions	195
4. Overall Conclusions	196

Part Two

The Pastoral Epistles, Revelation and the Johannine Letters

Chapter 5: What do the Pastoral Epistles tell us about the early Christians in Ephesus?	197
--	-----

1. Authorship	197
1.1 Historical Situation	197
1.2 Vocabulary and Style	198
1.3 Dealing with opponents	199
1.4 Church Structure	199
1.5 Theology	199
1.6 Explanations of the data	200
2. Date	202
3. Place of Origin	205
4. Was Ephesus the intended destination of 1 and 2 Tim?	206

5. The “opponents”	209
5.1 General polemic	209
5.2 The opponents are Christians	211
5.3 The opponents are within the congregations, and are leaders	211
5.4 The success of the opponents and the crisis they have created	212
5.5 What can we say about the opponents’ theology?	214
5.5.1 Jewish dimensions of the opponents’ teaching	215
5.5.2 Knowledge.....	217
5.5.2.1 The resurrection is already past	218
5.5.2.2 The nature of this gnosis concerning the resurrection	219
5.5.2.3 The Pastor’s eschatology	219
5.5.3 The origin of this over-realized eschatology	221
5.5.4 Women and the opponents’ teaching	222
5.5.5 Ascetic Practices	223
5.5.6 Greed	226
5.6 Is there a distinction between the opponents’ teaching in 1 and 2 Timothy (which are said to be to Ephesus) and Titus (which is said to be to Crete)?	227
5.7 Identifying the Opponents?	228
5.8 Are there other features of the Pastorals that are directed against the opponents?	232
5.9 What happened after the letters were written?	233
6. Overall Conclusions	235
 Chapter 6: What do the Johannine Letters tell us about the early Christians in Ephesus?	 237
1. Why John’s Gospel cannot be used here	237
2. That John was written from Ephesus	241
2.1 Polycrates, bishop of Ephesus	242
2.2 Papias	246
2.3 Irenaeus	253
2.4 The Acts of John	258
2.5 The use of John’s Gospel in Asia Minor	261
2.6 Reading John in Ephesus by van Tilborg	262
2.7 Internal Evidence	262
2.8 Other proposed locations	263
2.9 Conclusions	263
3. That the Johannine Letters were written from Ephesus	263
3.1 The authorship of 1-3 Jn	264
3.2 External support for the Johannine Letters being located in Ephesus	268
3.3 Ephesus as the centre of a group of house churches	269

3.4 That John travelled to Ephesus and established a community there	271
4. Date of John's Gospel and of the Johannine Letters	272
5. The situation of the community at the time 1 Jn was written, and the opponents	273
5.1 What has happened before 1 John was written?	273
5.2 The view of Raymond Brown on the secessionists	275
5.3 Reading the rhetoric of 1 John	277
5.4 What was the purpose of 1 John, if it is not fundamentally polemic against the secessionists?	283
5.5 What can we say about the secessionists?	285
5.6 So what has happened in the community addressed, prior to 1 John being written?	288
5.7 Can we understand how the secessionists developed their theology?	290
6. Cerinthus	291
7. Overall Conclusions	292

Chapter 7: Revelation 2:1-7: The Proclamation to the Church in Ephesus and the Nicolaitans

1. Introductory questions	293
1.1 Authorship	293
1.2 Dating	294
1.3 Did John know the Christian community in Ephesus to which he writes?	295
1.4 The unity of Rev 2-3 with the rest of the book	295
2. The proclamation to Ephesus (Rev 2:1-7)	296
2.1 Introduction	296
2.1.1 Why seven churches, and why these seven?	297
2.1.2 The Structure of the proclamations	298
2.2 What does the proclamation to Ephesus tell us about the addressees in Ephesus?	298
2.2.1 The ἄγγελος of the adscriptio (v1a)	299
2.2.2 The narratio (v2-3)	299
2.2.2.1 Commendation about testing the "false apostles"	300
2.2.2.2 Endurance and Suffering (v3)	303
2.2.3 The dispositio (v4-5)	303
2.2.3.1 An Accusation (v4)	303
2.2.3.2 A Remedy: Remember, Repent, Do ... (v5)	304
2.2.4 Resumed narratio (v6)	306
2.2.5 The promise of victory (v7b)	307
3. The Nicolaitans	307

3.1	Were there any Nicolaitans in Ephesus?	308
3.2	Patristic testimony	309
3.3	The Nicolaitans – at Ephesus, Pergamum and Thyatira	310
3.4	“Practicing fornication”	311
3.5	Eating food offered to idols	312
3.6	Further preliminary observations	314
3.7	The names “Balaam”, “Jezebel” and “the Nicolaitans”	315
3.7.1	“Balaam”	316
3.7.2	“Jezebel”	317
3.7.3	“The Nicolaitans”	318
3.8	Understanding the Nicolaitans’ position	319
3.9	The deep things of Satan	322
3.10	John’s Response to the Nicolaitans	323
3.11	The relation to the wider city - three views	327
3.12	Rival Prophets?	328
3.13	Locating the Nicolaitans within Early Christianity	331
3.13.1	Were the Nicolaitans Paulinists?	331
3.13.2	Were the Nicolaitans Gnostics?	331
3.13.3	A Judaizing group?	332
3.13.4	The Nicolaitans and “the strong” in Corinth	333
3.14	Are the Nicolaitans related to the opponents of the Pastor?	334
4.	Who are John’s addressees in Revelation?	335
5.	What does Revelation tell us about the Christians in Ephesus addressed by John: Were they facing a crisis?	342
5.1	Were John’s readers in Ephesus facing a crisis?	343
5.1.1	Did Domitian persecute Christians?	343
5.1.2	Other elements of conflict in the social situation of Ephesian Christians addressed by John	344
6.	Overall Conclusions	347

Part Three

The relationships between the readers of the Pastorals, the Johannine Letters and Revelation

Chapter 8:	The wider culture and the readers of the Pastorals, the Johannine Letters and Revelation: Acculturation, Assimilation and Accommodation	351
1.	Introduction	351
2.	The Pastoral Epistles	354
2.1	Acculturation and the readers	354
2.1.1	Epiphany Christology – translation of the Gospel into a new idiom	355

2.1.2 Language for God	357
2.1.3 God and Jesus as “Saviour”	359
2.1.4 Eusebeia	361
2.1.5 Virtues	363
2.1.6 Lists of qualities required of leaders.....	365
2.1.7 Women and the ideal household	367
2.1.8 Conclusions	368
2.2 Assimilation – participation in wider cultural life?	369
2.2.1 Silence in most areas	369
2.2.2 The Pastor’s concern about what outsiders think and the desire not to cause offense	369
2.2.3 Conclusions	373
2.3 Accommodation: Using acculturation in an integrative way	373
2.3.1 Translating the tradition into a more acculturated form	373
2.3.2 A further indication of the integrative use of acculturation	375
2.3.3 A goal of integrative accommodation is mission	376
2.4 Evidence that the Pastor and his readers are also using acculturation in an antagonistic way	379
2.4.1 Christ as “our Great God and Saviour”	379
2.4.2 Wealth	380
2.5 “Christliche Bürgerlichkeit”?	383
2.6 Conclusions	384
3. The Johannine Letters	384
3.1 Acculturation and the readers	384
3.1.1 1 Jn - a Jewish book	384
3.1.2 Evidence of “in-group” language	385
3.1.3 The letter form of 2 and 3 Jn	386
3.2 Assimilation – participation in wider cultural life?	387
3.2.1 “Keep yourselves from idols” 1 Jn 5:21	387
3.2.2 The community and “the world”	388
3.3 Accommodation?	392
3.4 Conclusion	392
4. Revelation	393
4.1 Acculturation and the readers	393
4.1.1 The imperial cult (Rev 4-5)	395
4.1.2 The combat myths (Rev 12)	395
4.1.3 Greco-Roman magic	396
4.1.4 Conclusions	397
4.2 Assimilation – participation in wider cultural life?	398
4.3 Accommodation: using cultural tools in an antagonistic way to further polemic	398
4.3.1 The imperial cult (Rev 4-5)	399

4.3.2 The combat myths (Rev 12)	399
4.3.3 Greco-Roman magic	400
4.4 Conclusions	400
5. Overall Conclusions	402
Chapter 9: Material Possessions and the readers of the Pastorals, the Johannine Letters and Revelation	404
1. Material Possessions and the Pastoral Epistles	404
1.1 Wealthy members of the community	405
1.1.1 Instructions to the “rich”	405
1.1.2 Wealthy Women’s adornment	406
1.1.3 Women who can assist widows	407
1.2 Evidence which has been thought to indicate wealth, but in my view does not	407
1.2.1 Christian Slave owners	407
1.2.2 Leaders who were heads of households	408
1.3 The less well off in the community: the real widows	411
1.4 Those who are neither wealthy nor destitute	411
1.4.1 Supporting family members	411
1.4.2 The slaves	412
1.4.3 Those who want to be rich and the polemic against the love of money	412
1.5 The Wealth of individuals and of the community, and how it was used	413
1.5.1 Individual possessions	413
1.5.2 Individual wealth used for other Christians	413
1.5.3 The community’s common fund used for the community	414
1.5.4 Wealth used beyond the community	415
1.5.5 Wealth and the selection of leaders	421
1.6 Conclusions	421
2. Material possessions and the Johannine Letters	422
2.1 Material possessions in 1 John	422
2.1.1 1 Jn 3:16-18: The brother and sister in need and group boundary reinforcement	422
2.1.2 1 Jn 2:15: Detachment from possessions	427
2.2 Material possessions in 2-3 John: Hospitality and group boundary definition	428
2.2.1 2 John 10-11: Do not offer hospitality	429
2.2.2 3 John: The actions of Gaius and Demetrius	430
2.3 Conclusions	434

3. Material Possessions and the Christians in Ephesus
according to Revelation	434
3.1 John's relationship to the Seven Churches	434
3.2 Material possessions and the readers in the Seven Churches
(according to John)	435
3.2.1 Rev 2:9 to Smyrna	435
3.2.2 Rev 3:17 to Laodicea	436
3.3 Indications about the material possessions
of the addressees from Rev 4-22	438
3.3.1 Revelation 18: Judgement on Rome	438
3.3.2 Revelation 11:18 – the small and great	439
3.4 John's attitude to material possessions	440
3.5 Material possessions and the Christians in Ephesus?	442
3.6 How is wealth being used in the Seven Churches then?	443
4. Overall Conclusions	443

Chapter 10: Leadership and Authority and the readers of the Pastoral Epistles, the Johannine Letters and Revelation 446

1. Leadership and authority in the Pastorals	447
1.1 The role of Timothy and Titus	447
1.2 Πρεσβύτερος and ἐπίσκοπος and the relationship between the two terms	448
1.2.1 Πρεσβύτερος	448
1.2.2' Ἐπίσκοπος	449
1.2.3 Crete	449
1.2.4 But what was the situation at Ephesus?	451
1.2.5 What did the presbyter-overseers do?	456
1.3 Deacons	458
1.3.1 What did the deacons do?	458
1.3.2 How do deacons relate to presbyter-overseers?	459
1.3.3 Women deacons	460
1.3.4 Prophets	460
1.4 A degree of institutionalisation with regard to leadership
in the Pastoral Epistles	461
1.4.1 Signs of a degree of institutionalisation	462
1.4.2 Yet the institutionalisation of the leadership and structure of the church has only really begun	465
1.5 The locus of authority in the Pastorals	467
1.6 Conclusion	473
2. Leadership and authority in the Johannine Letters	473
2.1 Leadership in the community addressed in 1 Jn	474
2.2 The locus of authority in 1 Jn	475

2.2.1 Witness	477
2.2.2 Anointing	479
2.2.3 “What was from the beginning”	479
2.2.4 The ambiguity of the Spirit	482
2.3 Leadership in 2-3 Jn	482
2.4 The locus of authority in 2 and 3 Jn	486
2.5 Conclusions	489
3. Leadership and Authority in Revelation, particularly among the addressees at Ephesus as this is reflected in Rev 2:1-7	490
3.1 Leadership in the Book of Revelation	490
3.1.1 “ἄγγελος”	491
3.1.2 Elders	491
3.1.3 Apostles	491
3.1.4 Prophets	492
3.2 Does John reflect the actual leadership structure of the Seven Churches?	493
3.3 The locus of authority in Revelation	496
3.4 Conclusions	502
4. Overall conclusions	503

Chapter 11: The role of women among the readers of the Pastoral Epistles, the Johannine Letters and Revelation ... 507

1. The Pastoral Epistles	507
1.1 For the Pastor, leaders are Male	508
1.2 Women teachers in the community to which the author writes	508
1.2.1 Widows and the teaching of the Pastor’s opponents	509
1.2.2 “I permit no woman to teach ...” - 1 Tim 2:8-15	511
1.2.3 Other matters regarding the Pastor’s opponents and women	517
1.2.4 Why were women attracted to the opponents’ teaching?	519
1.3 Women Deacons?	520
1.4 The Widows’ order (1 Tim 5:3-16)	523
1.5 Other women	527
1.6 Conclusions	528
2. The Johannine Letters	528
2.1 1 Jn 2:12-14	528
2.1.1 For a generic usage and so for Option A or B	532
2.1.2 Option A – the argument from a rhetorical standpoint	533
2.1.3 Against Option C and so for a generic usage (either Options A or B)	534
2.1.4 For Option C	535

2.1.5 Who would πατέρες and νεανίσκοι refer to in Option C?	536
2.1.6 Who would πατέρες and νεανίσκοι refer to in Option B?	536
2.1.7 Implications	537
2.2 The “Elect Lady” of 2 Jn 1 and the “elect sister” of 2 Jn 13	538
2.3 Conclusions	540
3. Women in Revelation	540
3.1 Women in Ephesus (Rev 2:1-7)	541
3.2 John’s attitude towards women	541
3.2.1 Jezebel the “false prophet”	542
3.2.2 Rev 14:1-5	543
3.2.3 John’s symbolic language: Feminine imagery in Revelation	547
3.3 Conclusions and implications for women in Ephesus?	549
4. Overall Conclusions	550
 Chapter 12: What shall we call each other?
The issue of self-designation in the Pastoral Epistles, the Johannine Letters and Revelation	553
1. Introduction	553
2. The name “Christian”	554
3. Insider terms designating members of the group in the Pastoral Epistles	560
3.1 “Brother and sister”: ἀδελφός	561
3.2 “The believers”: οἱ πιστοί	565
3.3 The use of other terms	567
3.4 Conclusions	568
4. Insider terms designating members of the group in the Johannine Letters	569
4.1 Terms probably used only by the author of the readers	569
4.2 “Brother and sister”: ἀδελφός	571
4.3 “Children of God”: τέκνα θεοῦ	573
4.4 The use of other terms	575
4.5 Conclusions	576
5. Insider terms designating members of the group in Revelation	577
5.1 “The saints”: οἱ ἅγιοι	577
5.2 “Slave or servant”: δοῦλος	580
5.3 The use of other terms	583
5.4 Conclusions	584
6. Overall Conclusions	586

Chapter 13: The Relationships between traditions and communities in Ephesus	589
1. Introduction	589
2. The relationship between the readers of the Pastorals and the Johannine letters	589
2.1 Examining the hypothesis that the addressees of the Pastoral Epistles and the Johannine Letters had at least some non-hostile interactions	591
2.1.1 Why it is unlikely the author and readers of the Pastorals and the author and readers of the Johannine Letters would be totally ignorant of each other's existence	591
2.1.2 Why it is likely that relations between the readers of the Pastorals and the readers of the Johannine Letters would not be hostile	593
2.3 The evidence of vocabulary	594
2.3.1 Influences on the Pastoral Epistle	595
2.3.2 The influence of the Fourth Gospel and the Johannine Letters on the Pastorals	596
2.3.2.1 The good confession before Pilate (1 Tim 6:13-14)	596
2.3.2.2 μένειν ἐν (1 Tim 2:15; 2 Tim 3:14)	598
2.3.2.3 Cases of possible influence of the Johannine literature on the Pastorals	600
2.3.2.4 Conclusion	602
2.4 Influences on the Johannine Letters	603
2.4.1 Links between the Johannine letters and John's Gospel and other New Testament traditions	603
2.4.2 The influence of the Pastorals and the Pauline tradition on the Johannine Letters	605
2.4.2.1 The greetings in 2 John	605
2.4.2.2 Mission language in 3 Jn and the Pauline tradition	607
2.4.2.3 Tentative evidence for the influence of non-Johannine traditions in 1 Jn and 3 Jn	609
2.4.2.4 Conclusions	612
3. Influences on Revelation	614
3.1 Revelation and the Gospel of John	615
3.2 Pauline Influence on Revelation?	615
3.2.1 Possible examples of Pauline influence on Rev	616
3.2.2 Dubious examples of Pauline influence on Rev	619
3.2.3 Counter evidence	620
3.3 Why is Paul ignored in Revelation?	621
4. Overall Conclusions	626

Part Four
Ignatius' Letter to Ephesus

Chapter 14: Who are the addressees of Ignatius' letter to Ephesus?	628
1. Introductory matters	628
1.1 Ignatius' journey	628
1.2 Dating	629
1.3 The authenticity of his writings	631
1.4 Ignatius' source of information about the Christians in Ephesus to whom he wrote	632
1.5 The Situation at Antioch	634
1.6 Reading Ignatius' rhetoric	634
1.6.1 The rhetorical device of ascribing fulfillment of a command in advance	634
1.6.2 Ignatius underplays the extent to which the situation is not to his liking	637
2. The leadership of the Christians in Ephesus	639
2.1 The bishop, elders, and deacons	639
2.2 What is meant by the title "ἐπίσκοπος" when it is used by Ignatius of Onesimus?	643
2.3 Teachers, Apostles and Prophets?	645
3. To whom is Ignatius of Antioch writing in his letter to Ephesus?	645
3.1 Non-attendance at the assembly and "Resisting the Bishop"	647
3.1.1 The Problem	647
3.1.2 Their own gatherings	650
3.1.3 Meeting "apart from the bishop" elsewhere in Asia	651
3.2 The motives for independence from the bishop	654
3.2.1 Those who "resist the bishop" still "live according to the truth"	654
3.2.2 The silence of Onesimus	655
3.2.3 Evidence from Ephesus for a time of transition in church structure	658
3.2.4 Resistance to the development of monepiscopacy	660
3.2.4.1 Weighty justification of the office	661
3.2.4.2 The scope of the bishop's control	663
3.2.4.3 The situation in Philadelphia	664
3.2.4.4 The situation in Smyrna	665
3.2.4.5 Conclusions	668
3.2.5 Support for a different form of church order	669
3.2.5.1 The Johannine communities addressed in 1-3 Jn	669
3.2.5.2 Those who valued the prophetic model of leadership demonstrated by John the Seer	670

3.2.5.3 Conclusion	675
3.2.6 Answering issues that could undermine our hypothesis	676
3.2.6.1 If Ignatius is writing to all the Christians in Ephesus, why does he not mention John?	676
3.2.6.2 The unity of the church	678
4. Overall Conclusions	681
 Chapter 15: Ignatius and additional facets of the life
of the Christians in Ephesus	684
1. The significance of “the church” of Ephesus	684
2. “Opponents”	690
2.1 Did Ignatius oppose one group or two in his letters?	690
2.2 Opponents who regard themselves as Christians, are in Ephesus	690
2.3 The opponents were docetists	691
2.4 Did the opponents gain a following among Ignatius’ addressees in Ephesus?	693
2.5 Were any docetists actually resident in Ephesus?	694
2.6 Christ (and not Onesimus) is the only physician	697
2.7 No Judaisers in Ephesus	698
2.8 Conclusions	699
3. Other matters relating to the life of the Christians in Ephesus	700
3.1 Outsiders	700
3.2 The financial situation of the Christian addressees at Ephesus	701
3.3 Women in Asian Churches	703
3.4 The size of the communities addressed by Ignatius	705
3.5 Contact between Christian communities	707
3.6 Does Ignatius show any knowledge of the city of Ephesus?	709
4. Overall Conclusions	711
 Chapter 16: Conclusions	712
 Bibliography	719
 Index of References	772
 Index of Authors	811
 Index of Subjects and Places	820