

Contents

Introduction: Community-Based Prevention of Child Maltreatment	1
Kenneth A. Dodge and Doriane Lambelet Coleman

Part I. The Scientific Basis for the Community Prevention of Child Maltreatment

1 The History of Science and Child Abuse Prevention: A Reciprocal Relationship	9
Deborah Daro

Part II. Community Efforts to Prevent Child Maltreatment

2 Preventing Child Abuse and Neglect with Home Visiting by Nurses	29
David L. Olds, John Eckenrode, Charles Henderson, Harriet Kitzman, Robert Cole, Dennis Luckey, John Holmberg, and Pilar Baca
3 Toward a Population-Based Paradigm for Parenting Intervention, Prevention of Child Maltreatment, and Promotion of Child Well-Being	55
Ronald J. Prinz
4 Community-Level Prevention of Child Maltreatment: The Durham Family Initiative	68
Kenneth A. Dodge, Robert Murphy, Karen O'Donnell, and Christina Christopoulos

5	How Strong Communities Restored My Faith in Humanity: Children Can Live in Safety Gary B. Melton	82
6	The Period of PURPLE Crying: Keeping Babies Safe in North Carolina Desmond Runyan and Adam Zolotor	102
Part III. Policy and Practice Issues
7	Quality Improvement in Child Abuse Prevention Programs Robert T. Ammerman, Frank W. Putnam, Peter A. Margolis, and Judith B. Van Ginkel	121
8	Differential Response Jane Waldfogel	139
9	Innovations in Child Maltreatment Prevention: Resolving the Tension between Effective Assistance and Violations of Privacy Doriane Lambelet Coleman	156
10	Healing in the Place of Last Resort: The Role of the Dependency Court within Community-Based Efforts to Prevent Child Maltreatment Cindy S. Lederman	172
11	Preventing Maltreatment or Promoting Positive Development— Where Should a Community Focus Its Resources?: A Policy Perspective Michael S. Wald	182
	Index	197