

Acknowledgements	6
Editor's Introduction	7
 1 The development of community psychology	 9
What is this thing called 'community psychology'?	9
Developments in the treatment of the mentally ill and handicapped, 1945-65	14
The move from intrapsychic to interpersonal theories	22
The sociological input	24
The impetus to change	27
The creation of job opportunities	29
 2 Commonalities across community psychologists	 31
 3 Aspects of community psychology in Britain: 1	 38
Skills transmission: the training of nurse therapists	38
Clinical psychologists in Social Services
1: Newham	47
2: Birmingham	58
Social Services: non-traditional posts for psychologists	62
Liverpool: educational psychology	69

4	Aspects of community psychology in Britain: 2	77
	Community services for the mentally handicapped	77
	Preventive psychiatry	88
	New careers: Bristol	96
	Community work
	1: Beckton	101
	2: Islington Bus Company	109
	3: Centreprise, Hackney	117
	4: The People's Aid and Action Centre, Battersea	119
5	Ticket to ride: the future	125
	Further Reading	135
	References and Name Index	138
	Subject Index	143