

Contents

Preface	7
1 Introduction	9
Notes
2 Intelligence and IQ: nature or nurture?	15
History of IQ testing – Is intelligence inherited? – Separated identical twins – Kinship correlations – Adoption studies – Zero heritability? – Notes
3 Intelligence and race: are black people genetically inferior?	53
A priori arguments – Racial admixture and crossing studies – The heritability argument – Test bias – Comparing minority groups – Environmental influences on IQ – Psychology and ideology – Notes
4 Obedience and cruelty: are most people potential killers?	81
Milgram's study of obedience – Ethical justification of obedience research – Validity of obedience experiments – Further research – Notes
5 Hypnosis: are hypnotic effects genuine?	109
Historical background – Hypnotic analgesia: credulous versus sceptical views – Is there a hypnotic state? – Trance logic – Notes
6 Eating disorders: are anorexia nervosa and bulimia nervosa forms of depression?	141
Anorexia nervosa: 'the slimmer's disease' – How is anorexia nervosa diagnosed? – What is 'normal' body weight? A digression – How common is anorexia nervosa? – Body image disturbance – Bulimia nervosa – Eating disorders and depression – Notes
7 Extra-sensory perception: is there any solid evidence?	166
Classification and historical background – The Soal–Goldney experiments – The Pearce–Pratt experiments – Precognition in rodents – Psi Ganzfeld experiments – Remote viewing experiments – ESP: errors surely present? – Notes
References	201
Index	219