Table of contents

Maps

Introductory words

One more cup of coffee: On gradual creolization

Margot van den Berg and Rachel Selbach

Jacques Arends' model of gradual creolization

Hugo C. Cardoso

PART 1. Linguistic analysis

Productive bimorphemic structures and the concept of gradual creolization

Philip Baker

Gradual vs. abrupt creolization and recent changes in Daman Creole Portuguese

J. Clancy Clements

Gradual restructuring in Ecuadorian Quechua

Pieter Muysken

A note on the process of lexical diffusion in the development of creoles: The case of double-object verbs

Claire Lefebvre

Change in the possessive system of French Caribbean Creole Languages

Marie-Christine Hazaël-Massieux

The origin and development of possibility in the creoles of Suriname

Bettina Migge and Donald Winford

The Saramaccan lexicon: Verbs

Peter Bakker
Development of a creole lexicon
George L. Huttar

Gradualism in the transfer of tone spread rules in Saramaccan
Marvin Kramer

In search of a submerged phonology: The case of early Cape Dutch Pidgin
Hans den Besten

PART 2. Sociohistorical reconstruction

Bilingualism and creolization in the Solomon Islands
Christine Jourdan

Lingua Franca in West Africa? An evaluation of the sociohistorical and metalinguistic evidence
Magnus Huber

The formation of the Portuguese-based creoles: Gradual or abrupt?
John Ladham

English-speaking in early Surinam?
Norval S.H. Smith

The demographic context of creolization in early English Jamaica, 1655–1700
Silvia Kouwenberg

The Founder Principle and Anguilla's Homestead Society
Don E. Walicek

Demographic factors in the formation of French Guianese Creole
William Jennings

Index