

Contents

Introduction .....	1
--------------------	---

Part One: Paul Bowles: Countercultural Beginnings, “New” Studies of the Orient, Decolonization Poetics ..... 13

1. Port Moresby’s American Anxieties & “New” Orients:
Surrealism, Colonialism, Counterculturalism ..... 15
2. The Other in The Sheltering Sky: Colonial Heterogeneity,
White Textualizations of Freedom and Community ..... 25
3. “The Sky”: Kit Moresby’s Hitchhike, Orientalist Domains, and Countercultural Transcendences ..... 33
4. The Spider’s House: Islam’s Apologia. Death and “Post” Rebirth:
Bowles’s Narrative Exploration of Islamic Belief ..... 42
5. A Hundred Camels In The Courtyard and “Post” Fashionings of Moroccan Modernity ..... 58

Part Two: Burroughs’s “Interzone Intermezzo”: Naked Lunch and the Internationalization of Countercultural Narrative ..... 67

6. The Scornful Cynic on “Junk”: The Racist Side of William Seward
Burroughs and the Limits of Countercultural Narrations ..... 71
7. Burrough’s Naked Lunch and the Radical Casting of “Beat”
Through White-Other Sexual Relationality: Colonialism, Counterculturalism, and Postmodernism ..... 75
8. Burroughs’s Explication of Sex and History Through “Beat” Sense- Geographies: The Makings of Hippie and Countercultural Thesis ..... 80
9. Burroughs’s Colonial-Postcolonial Other and Counterculture:
Prophecy, Modernity and Naturalism: White Sexual Panic
and the Making of Orient Challenges to West Humanism and “Normality” ..... 86

Part Three: Jack Kerouac, the Common “Human Story” and White-Other Historicity: Beatniks Face the Challenge of Popularizing and Humanizing Otherness .....	103
10. Literary Origins and Kerouacian “Humanism”: White Expansions of Consciousness, White-Other Literary and Philosophical Mutuality .....	107
11. Neal, “Yardbird” Parker, Miles Davis and White Transcriptions of Jazz and Blues: Dulouoz’s Deracialized “Counter-History” .....	112
12. “A Gathering of Homeless Brothers”: Kerouac, Buddhism, and “New” American Translations of Chinese Philosophy: World Bhikkhood Fights Against Racism, Postmodernism, Officialism .....	130
13. Kerouac Among the Fellahin: The Mexican Conundrum and Counterculture’s Rewriting of Mexican Otherness .....	155
Conclusion .....	167
Works Cited .....	171
Index .....	177