

CONTENTS

Introduction: Origins and Ambivalences ZACHARY LEADER	1
1. 'Still Going On, All of It': The Movement in the 1950s and the Movement Today BLAKE MORRISON	16
2. The 'Truth of Skies': Auden, Larkin and the English Question NICHOLAS JENKINS	34
3. Counter-intuitive Larkin CRAIG RAINE	62
4. The Lesbianism of Philip Larkin TERRY CASTLE	79
5. Kingsley Amis: Against Fakery JAMES FENTON	106
6. Philosophy and Literature in the 1950s: The Rise of the 'Ordinary Bloke' COLIN MCGINN	123
7. 'The Virtues of Good Prose': Verbal Hygiene and the Movement DEBORAH CAMERON	139
8. 'An Instrument of Articulation': Empson and the Movement DEBORAH BOWMAN	155

9. Boys on the Move KARL MILLER	177
10. 'I thought I Was So Tough': Thom Gunn's Postures for Combat ALAN JENKINS	187
11. In and Out of the Movement: Donald Davie and Thom Gunn CLIVE WILMER	204
12. Donald Davie, The Movement, and Modernism WILLIAM H. PRITCHARD	228
13. How It Seemed Then: An Autobiographical Anecdotal Essay ANTHONY THWAITE	247
14. New Lines in 1956 ERIC HOMBERGER	255
15. 'Fond of What He's Crapping On': Movement Poetry and Romanticism MICHAEL O'NEILL	270
16. Elizabeth Jennings, the Movement, and Rome RACHEL BUXTON	292
17. New Lines , Movements, and Modernisms ROBERT CONQUEST	307
List of Contributors	317
Index	321