

Contents

Introduction	1
PART I: INTELLECTUAL HISTORY, POLITICAL THOUGHT, AND CONSERVATISM
1. Intellectual History, Political Thought and Conservatism	19
PART II: THE INTER-WAR DECADES IN BRITAIN
2. Conservatism as a Crusade: F. J. C. Hearnshaw	51
3. The Attraction of Tory Democracy: Keith Feiling	86
4. The Phenomenon of Arthur Bryant: Patriotism, Conservatism, and the Greater Public	110
5. Arthur Bryant, Appeasement, and Anti-Semitism	142
PART III: POST-WAR BRITAIN
6. Christianity and Conservative Historiography: Herbert Butterfield, Cambridge, and the Greater World	179
PART IV: POST-WAR AMERICA
7. Conservative Historians and Social Criticism, 1941 through the 1960s	223
8. The Americanization of the British Conservative Mind: Peter Viereck and Russell Kirk	240
9. Conservatism and Exceptionalism	269
Epilogue: The Future of the Conservative Past	287
Bibliography	309
Index	333