

Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Abbreviations xiii

Introduction 1

PART 1: THE FIRST STRAND

1. "A Facet of East-West Problems" 17
2. "A Western Mind Would Consider
This Kind of Spectacle as Stupid" 31
3. "The Key to Many of These Countries
Is Not the Mud Hut Population" 43
4. "A Group of Angry Young Intellectuals" 61

PART 2: THE SECOND STRAND

5. "We Can Give the World a Vision of America" 79
6. "A Record of Some Kind in the History of International Communication" 94
7. "Something of That Sense of World Citizenship" 118
8. "A New Idea Capable of Uniting the Thoughts of People All Over the Earth" 139

Epilogue: "To Speak with a Single Voice Abroad" 157

Notes 175

Selected Bibliography 207

Index 213

Illustrations follow pages 76 and 138