

Contents

List of Figures	ix
List of Tables	xiii
Acknowledgement	xv
Introduction	xvii

PART I

WHAT DO PEOPLE SEE? THE DEVELOPMENT OF VISUAL PERSPECTIVE-TAKING

	1
1 The very young child's understanding of other observers	3
2 Children's representations of different views	30
Conclusion	48

PART II

THE ARTIST'S POINT OF VIEW

	51
3 How can we represent a three-dimensional scene on a two-dimensional surface?	53
4 Draw what you can see, omit what you can't	65
5 How to draw 'in perspective'	85
Conclusion	111

PART III

CONVERSATIONAL ROLE-TAKING

	113
6 Taking account of the listener's needs	115
7 Deictic expressions	137
Conclusion	156

PART IV

WHAT'S ON YOUR MIND?

	161
8 I know what you're thinking	163
9 I know how you feel	181

Conclusion	191
Bibliography	192
Name Index	211
Subject Index	218