

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
Introduction	1
Part I Criminalization	5
1 Civil society: its institutions and major players	7
2 Crime and the limits of criminalization	20
3 Constraints on governmental agents	36
Part II Policing	49
4 Tensions within the police role	51
5 The burdens of discretion	71
6 Coercion and deception	89
Part III Courts	111
7 Prosecutors: seeking justice through truth?	113
8 Defense lawyers: zealous advocacy?	136
9 The impartial judge?	155
10 Juries: the lamp of liberty?	175

Part IV Corrections	193
11 Punishment and its alternatives	195
12 Imprisonment and its alternatives	212
13 The role of correctional officers	233
14 Reentry and collateral consequences	252
Selected further reading	268
Index	275