

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface (by ROMAN JAKOBSON)	IX
Foreword	XI
I. Earlier Approaches to Word Order	I
Pre-20th Century Studies of Word Order	I
Pre-1844	I
1844	4
Post-1844	8
20th Century Studies of Word Order	13
Early 20th Century	13
Mid-Twentieth Century Works	22
Recent Works	26
II. Analysis of the Data	39
General Theoretical Introduction	39
A Linguistic Phenomenon	40
Particular Linguistic System	42
Synchronic Study	44
The Linguistic System qua System	46
Semantic Character of Language	55
Meaning vs. Reference	56
Invariance	57
Distinctive Features	61
Semantic Character of Modification	68
A First Definition of Modification	69
Deixis and Modification	75
Modification and the Parts of Speech	77
A Second Definition of Modification	79
Predication vs. Attribution	84
Modification and the 'Character of the Connection'	85
Semantic Character of Word Order	86
A First Definition of the Marking	88
A Second Definition of the Marking	94
Theoretical Excursus	98
Further Analysis of the Data	103
Predication	120

Lexical Meaning of the Adjective	I24
Syntagmatic Accompaniments of the Adjective	I30
Anaphoric Use of the Pre-posed Adjective	I32
Lexical Meaning of the Substantive	I35
} Post-position	I38
Other Analyses	I44
 III. Prospects: Further Applications of the Analysis	 I54
Analysis of Further Data	I54
} Two or More Adjectives	I54
Phonological Processes	I60
The Adverb	I61
Subject-Verb	I69
Verb-Substantive	I69
Categories other than Word Order	I71
Prepositions	I72
Lexical Meaning of the Verb	I75
The Subjunctive	I77
The Prefix re-	I79
Neuf vs. nouveau	I79
 Data Appendix	 I81
I. Minimal and Near-minimal Pairs (Translated)	I81
II. More Minimal and Near-minimal Pairs	I89
} III. Some Adjectives 'Normally' Post-posed	I94
} IV. Some Pre-posed Adjectives 'Normally' Post-posed	I95
V. Accompanying Modifier	I96
VI. Anaphoric Uses of the Pre-posed Adjective	I98
} VII. Same or Similar Adjective used Twice	I99
VIII. Proper Nouns	I99
} IX. Two or More Adjectives	201
X. Adjectives with Conjunctions	203
XI. Adverb plus Substantive	205
XII. Adverb plus Verb	206
 Bibliography	 209
I. Theoretical and General Works	209
II. General Studies on French	213
III. General Studies on Syntax	216
IV. General Studies on Word Order	217
V. Studies on Word Order in French	218
VI. Word Order Studies Pertaining to Other Languages	221
VII. Studies Relating to the Nominal Group	223
 Index	 226