

Contents

Preface	xi
Introduction	1
1 Rhizomatic politics: a new theory of social logics and assemblages	7
Deleuzian philosophy: singularities, difference and the critique of representation	7
Active and reactive forces: between desire and repression	15
Rhizomes and arborescence	18
Social logics in the contemporary world-system	23
Anti-systemic movements and the included stratum	25
Forms of hierarchical structure: from alienation to capitalism	28
Fields of alienation: social, ecological, psychological	36
Capitalism	42
The state	57
The special problems of the state logic in the periphery	66
2 World-system theory	69
Explaining world-systems analysis	69
Global development and structural crisis	78
Contemporary capitalist crisis	80
Transformation of the state	90
Structural cycles in the world-system	106
Where now? The question of China	115
Global cities	122

3	Affinity networks	127
	The network form	127
	Generic advantages and disadvantages of networks	137
	Affinity-networks as global alternative	142
	The arts of resistance in the age of globalisation: same weakness, new weapons	155
	Autonomous social movements and global protest	160
	Societies without the state: the indigenous challenge	179
	The indigenous revolution in Deleuze and Guattari	192
	The power of indigenous networks: indigenous social movements	197
4	Reactive networks	203
	Defining reactive networks	203
	Reactive networks and hierarchies	207
	The existential origins of reactive networks: scarcity and anxiety	214
	Empirical cases of the affinity-reactive tension	218
	Reactive networks and the Hobbesian objection to networks	224
	Ethno-religious movements	228
	Ethno-religious reactive networks in the Iraqi insurgency	230
	Ethnicity in the world-system, and the formation of ethnic groups	237
	Analysing specific cases of 'ethnic conflict'	245
	Afghanistan	251
	Terrorism, reactive networks and hegemonic decline	262
	Conclusion	265
	Delinking capabilities	267
	The role of revolutionary agency	270
	Creating spaces of peace	273
	(Not) the end	276
	Bibliography	278
	Index	309