

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements vii

Part I. Organizational Settings for Creativity

Chapter

- |     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| 1.  | Can Organizations Be Creative, Too?Calvin W. Taylor   | 1   |
| 2.  | Managing for Creativity in the OrganizationJack R. Gibb   | 23  |
| 3.  | The Innovational RevolutionWarren Wiggins   | 33  |
| 4.  | Travels in Search of New Latitudes for InnovationFrank Barron   | 49  |
| 5.  | Creativity in Interpersonal RelationsJ. P. Guilford   | 63  |
| 6.  | Group Dynamics and Creative FunctioningE. Paul Torrance   | 75  |
| 7.  | Assessing the Relationships Between the IndustrialClimate and the Creative ProcessJ. H. McPherson | 97  |
| 8.  | The Identification and Use of Creative Abilitiesin Scientific OrganizationsGerald Gordon          | 109 |
| 9.  | The Interest of the U.S. Civil Service Commissionin CreativityNicholas J. Oganovic                | 125 |
| 10. | Making Organizational Changes Toward CreativityAndrew Kay   | 131 |
| 11. | Major Weapon System Advances ThroughMultiple InnovationsChalmers Sherwin                          | 139 |

Part II. Other Creativity Settings and Studies

- |     |  |     |
|-----|--|-----|
| 12. | Predictors and Criteria of Creativity:A Utah Progress ReportCalvin W. Taylor and Robert L. Ellison | 149 |
| 13. | Maintenance of Creative Output Through the YearsAnne Roe   | 167 |

14.	Programming Creative Behavior Sidney J. Parnes	193
15.	Dynamic Dimensions of Teaching Learning Robert C. Burkhart	229
16.	Intellective, Non-Intellective, and Environmental Correlates of Mechanical Ingenuity William A. Owens	253
17.	Creativity Research Program: A Review Morris P. Parloff	269
18.	A Holistic Approach to Creativity A. H. Maslow	287
	References	295
	Index	301