Contents

Foreword by Gareth Stedman Jones [ix]

Introduction [1]

Part 1 Overseeing democracy [29]
1 Vigilance, denunciation, evaluation [33]
2 The overseers [57]
3 The thread of history [76]
4 Legitimacy conflicts [104]

Part 2 The sovereignty of prevention [121]
5 From the right of resistance to complex sovereignty [125]
6 Self-critical democracies [150]
7 Negative politics [173]

Part 3 The people as judge [191]
8 Historical references [195]
9 Almost legislators [214]
10 The preference for judgment [227]
Part 4  Unpolitical democracy  [249]

11  The sense of powerlessness and symbols of depoliticization  [253]

12  The populist temptation  [265]

13  Lessons of unpolitical economy  [274]

14  Conclusion: the modern mixed regime  [290]

Index  [319]